Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

INTRODUCTION AND PROLOGUE

When talking about philosophy, religion, sacred books, new era, civilization, spiritual masters and spirituality from all over the planet, there always appear some messengers. They were here before the creation we know, and they keep on being here, guiding the humanity, behind the scenes, following the divine plan. They are the messenger angels. And during all this time, some agnostic or atheistic people have always existed when talking about all these subjects, which I think it is sublime and perfect. This proves that: “In my father’s house, there are many dwellings and all of them without an exception can express unconditional love.”

Here I will remember you that, the same as the earth laws, “the unawareness of the law, does not exempt anyone from its compliance.”

Then? «Unknowing the divine laws don’t exempt anyone from responsibility and acceptance, from our act consequences and elections in our free will. »

If you like differing, this is also your book. Smile.

Since one day I read and as a good friend would say: Don’t believe anything , don’t consider everything is true, experiment, look for, discover yourself, put everything to the test and if it works, just simply accept it and use it and if it doesn’t work, go on looking for and testing.

It is this way that humanity has developed along the ages.

Now, if you are an agnostic or a consecrated atheist, I'm going to show you that you believe in something.

You believe in atoms! You believe in them because someone studied them, and wrote about them explaining their existence. You read and studied about them, you accepted what other people explained as an absolute and demonstrable truth. Having said that, I'm going to bring up a few basic questions of an agnostic or an atheist to you.

- Show me its existence with something visual that I can touch and see right now. Show me that you have seen an atom. Have you been introduced to an atom?

If it is possible, tell me:

- With what tools, I can have at home, or here just now, can I demonstrate their existence for my sight, pleasure and enjoyment? Could you explain where you extracted the idea from which the atoms exist? Perhaps you believed everything you read on them or did you accept someone's belief without questioning it or watching it by yourself? Did you investigate about its discoverer so as to know if that was a reliable source? Did you look for some information about the first ones who expressed this new concept?

- We discuss and disagree as good agnostics and atheists that we are.

¡And look boy! As soon as you make an atom appear in front of me and you introduce it to me, I will believe in them. Meanwhile... Not!

Now, smile and welcome.

Atoms exist.

Moreover, at this point, the human being has invented a machine which is capable enough to see an atom, and because of this with the necessary knowledge, we can create capable tools to be able to observe what we believe in.

Maybe one day you will be able to observe the creator. But remember, you won't be able to observe what you don't believe in.

This book is a meeting point so as to solve doubts and fears, to receive orientation during a pleasant conversation from humor and love. I'm going to talk about angels, the spirit and spirits.

Believe it or not, so as to be spiritual in this material world you must have a great sense of humor and a perspective of the different realities. A lot of humor and unconditional love.

If you don't believe in anything of all this, «-Boy, don't read the book!, or just do it as if it were a science fiction book, like when you read "From the Earth to the Moon" and it was still a science fiction book. ¡Ah! ¿Can't you remember? Damn! »

I forgot that not all of us remember.(1)

(1) Here the writer refers to previous lives.

« For sure, it works for me. Doesn't it work for you?
¡Ah! Well... ¡You will know! Well you know everything, or *maybe...only perhaps...» Smile.

A human angel handed a sheet of paper with the following words to me, and I saw this orison

- I have to give this to you, He told me.

- you will need it. While his angel was whispering in my ear.

- «Brother you will need it, when the moment comes, use it with wisdom »

Along this book, I will be inserting writings, letters and answering to questions that I received before. It is possible that you are the addressee of any of them. Thanks, it is like that.

PRESENTATION

In the beginning, HE was the only one and his love

« ¡Wait, wait! »...

My story begins here, I am Lorenzo or “Loren”.

Before starting to write I have had to improve myself and get rid of my fears. Love my family more than ever.

Respect the others, I have had to accept myself and accept them the way they are, the way we are, I have had to walk slowly, learn with serenity, drink a lot of water.

I have had to learn not to judge, the hardest lesson, not to judge. I have had to take care of my environment, at my daily work, with my family, acquaintances, friends, and customers. I have had to learn to love myself, so as to love humanity.

I have had to visit doctors as I convinced myself that, because of other people's opinion, I was mad, that I was bad, that I had stress, that I would die soon and that I wouldn't get to...Where to? How is it possible that I wished with all my being to see my brothers' awakening? The humanity.

If you think that any of my neurons fail, smile, I encourage you to continue reading. I have never considered myself as a religious person, although I was born in a Christian environment. Well, as my mother says, I believe my way.

I respect the other beliefs and religions, despite I disagree in certain concepts.

I don't like politics, the military environment should be to help humanity, and the social and civil environment is my environment.

I'm a computer technician, an electricity technician and my specialization is about electrical installations of all type. When I was studying, there weren't any computer options, so when I could save enough, I bought my first computer and that was the beginning of my present job.

I live in Elda which is a footwear town in the province of Alicante in Spain. When I say Spain I feel very proud, I feel Spanish, but I would say more, I feel a humanity citizen and I reside in the earth, a planet which is at the exact distance of a star that we call sun, with the suitable conditions in which life flourishes. Some people state that it is smart life, but that remains to be seen. In this writing, I'm going to mention very sensitive subjects, but I truly write about them because a very special person told me that I would write a book and that I would speak about an angel, the archangel Gabriel. I am sincerely a person who used to read little or even hardly anything. In fact, I think that I have only read three books until my 37th birthday: A book written by Stephen King with the pseudonym of Richard Bachman "The fugitive", the MS-DOS 6.2 manual to optimize the memory, and the notebook to learn to read that my mother with a lot of patience taught me, well, patience and some slaps. Of course, I read more things but when I talk about reading, I mean the fact of beginning and finishing the book.

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

As of now, reading has activated inside me a search of something, I don't know what. And some curious things have been happening to me.

I ask the person who begins reading this book to have his/her mind open to new theories and new ideas, no matter if they seem to be bizarre. Open your mind to the possibility of thinking that it is possible an evolution, not only mental, or material, but spiritual or energetic, to call it somehow, as well.

Thanks. More details about myself would bore the reader, with this is enough.

Smile.

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

“Everything has been given to them, but they haven’t realized it, yet.”

ANGELIC LEGEND I. IN THE BEGINNING

At the beginning HE was the only one and his love, and apparently, the whole being needed some action, so he felt like creating. I'm going to tell you about the legend of Gabriel's angelic vision related to creation.

When the whole being decided to create, the duality being was born, male and female energy in perfect balance. He assumed the role of male energy, and decided to create together, so the trinity was born, a perfect angel, the maximum expression of balanced energy according to unconditional love. After that, they created the whole aspects, the archangels, teachers, perfect energies, and an eternal number of main angels who were teachers with the serenity being. The perfection was expressed itself in harmony and unconditional love. But as in every familiar story, sons and daughters desired to be equal to the whole being. In the angelic sphere, in an eternal moment, a co-creator, an angel called "The unit" spoke to the whole being and told him.

- I wish I were like you.

- Oh! What a great request, to be a whole being.

- I think it was an expression which all the angels expressed and thought at the same time. Good!

The father-mother who always assisted their son and daughter petitions was already preparing a heaven for this objective.

Our whole being, had already thought about it, we have to remember that before any necessity is produced, HE already knows it, HE had a plan, the famous divine plan and HE was going to begin the greatest creation and unconditional love expression ever conceived to experiment the whole of all its aspects, so as to be exactly the same as HE. HE created an eternal number of spheres and kingdoms, and among them, HE created a heaven and HE called it earth, and in its harmony, this new heaven accompanied the whole of heavens and spheres that already existed, “As in my Father’s House, there are many dwellings, many schools, many being kingdoms, so as to experiment and remember the whole of what we are, “ but an angel had already said so before I did, “JESUS”. Well, Let’s continue. But he put some rules, each angel who desired to be like him, should be embodied in the earth, so as to be able to live the duality whole to be a balanced trinity and ascend as a son or a daughter and be the whole like him and in him.

Remember what the spirit essence of an angel is, unconditional love. Everybody who embodies this experience will not remember who he is and will enter in a material world. His spirit energy will choose a vehicle, a soul and an ego full of opposite feelings or not to his being reason. His spirit and his angel will experiment the duality separation by ego and will remain as a guard of his own self ego. This function is created by the soul vehicle “Soul” which is necessary for the embodiment experience.

The aspects and the negative teachers of the being proposed to participate with their teaching in this heaven, by implanting their idea of living based on suffering, so before they knew the divine plan, they jumped to embody in this new heaven called earth.

Without the knowledge of the plan, they were going to take part from a very important piece for the being experience. “Beautiful light” and others with the ambition of teaching and directing based on suffering the sphere from the ego which his brothers and sisters chose by ignoring this heaven objective.

They decided to embody without understanding the divine plan. They were taking part in a purpose which they didn't manage to understand.

“Everything has been given to them but they haven't realized it, yet.”

¡Up to this was given to us! “I want to be like you”, but haven't we realized, yet?

Beautiful light and her brothers assumed the control of 15% of soul vehicles energy which was necessary to embody and the direction of the egos loaded in the vehicles. Egos who were opposite to the being reason of their spirit angel brothers who desired to experiment this great adventure called life. Life, a perfect material and energetic effect of the soul vehicle which isolates the angel spirit that you are, so as to live the duality which is designed to remember how to love the totality unconditionally. Without any exceptions.

Now, I am going to explain it to you as a father-mother, Just imagine for a moment that all the beings from all the kingdoms and spheres are sons and daughters of yours, absolutely all of them, without any exception, and you know that some of them go through the way of life with unconditional love, without any problems, whereas there are others that are messed up in the ego mess that his sister weaved for you, for her experience. Tell me: Which ones would you worry the most?

Now, I am going to explain it to you as your brother, "I am what, I am". I will protect my brothers and sisters, we have to help those that are messed up in the mess and explain our sister which her mission was, because she never knew about it. She must remember that she is an angel, that she never stopped being an angel. She simply had a mission in the divine plan. "God force" descended to the earth with the message. Miguel, Rafael, Gabriel, Uriel and Chamuel, were the first five ones to descend to look for their sister. They affirmed, " We trust him completely, HE will guide us". Since then, all the angels descend to help, and today, here and now you remember who you are and that the objective is to remember how to love yourself and every being without exception unconditionally, being happy and coming back home triumphantly in ascension, our Home in the Totality.

And now, Can you remember...? Could you tell me if you are a teacher of some of them or of the others? And keeping this in mind, what are you going to choose?

You can choose being unconditional love in thinking, word, act, creative action and spirit. You can choose being an angel, what you really are and you always were.

Welcome to the Free will. Gabriel.

SOUL VEHICLE USE “SOUL” Gabriel’s notes

« Oh my God! Oh my God! Where did I leave the Manual? » Smile.

« This cannot be driven by anyone! » At the moment I am looking at the screen and I am afraid of touching any buttons « Who organized this vehicle? » I was listening to my spirit asking the 15% prefilled ego, while the angel was waiting for my awakening. I hardly looked at the panel and I saw auras, chakras (energetic points in our body), divine feelings, etc.

« But who has designed this? My God! With red and green signs, My God! And the manual about how this is driven? Where is it? »

My Angel Guide indicated me, - Please, sit down.

I reclined myself on the chair of the soul vehicle and Just imagine! What a comprehension! What a feeling! How warm it was!

Oh! What is this?. And look!! I'm moving! I am listening to some voices, it is a warm voice. Oh! What feelings. Suddenly a cut and thrust . Oh Mother! Oh dear!. Come on! What is happening? Phew!! I don't want this, But? But? Wait!! Hey!! Excuse me!!

And you go and you are born.

No sooner had I arrived, that I got a slap, you cannot say a word and wow! Do well, up to now you can practically remember the rest, just now that you are reading this, except until you learn to speak, you listen to your angel part which is the other 85 per cent of the ego, which may be deactivated or not, and will remain sleepy getting ready for what is coming. Your ego will control the whole of your feelings, thoughts and negative actions, or the ones that you consider are negative, and your angel the other 85 per cent, ah! And remember, you can do whatever you want, your free will, but of course, the creator has included some inflection points and events for which you will have to go ahead in any case.

It begins here the adventure of your life experience.

You have the first pinnacle of your life, What is a pinnacle? Don't worry about it now, it is a period of your life, we will explain this to you further on, continue!

In this number of years in which you are going to receive the instruction of all the egos which are going around you, so as to determine your way of being, believing and thinking, you are not going to have a moment of freedom or maybe yes. Who knows? You decide.

-I am listening to someone who is speaking without stopping, but who is speaking?

- Hello! I am your ego. Welcome! I am going to carry out a constant inventory of your better cocks up.

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

*- I introduce myself, I am your angel "Dr. No".
Before you begin talking, I'm going to remind you that my mission is to indoctrinate you about this suffering experience.*

- ¡Guy! Aren't you a little bit negative?

- It is my function. I am here so as to enrich your experience.

- And how is the other 85% activated?

- Ha! Do you think I'm going to let you touch any buttons? You are going crazy.

- But old chap! Aren't you going to stop criticizing in all my experience?

- This is nothing, you are going to shit!

- What? What is this?

- Yes, Literally. You are shitting.

- Oh¡ What a pain!! What am I doing? Oh my God!

- Go and cry.

Smile.

Did I catch you?

Welcome to life.

YOUR EGO

- Hello! I am “your name” and before you begin talking and expressing yourself in a technical way as “Myself” you must know some exceptions that you will forget.

- But guy! What is the use to know something that I won't remember?

- Good, you will see..., this is not technically this way. Your guard angel panel, your superior being, will connect with you from time to time by adding 60 thousand subtle signals per day.

- Fucking hell! ;Don't fuck up! I must be blind because I can't see any.

- I'm responsible for that. Your “Dr. No”.

After receiving these minor instructions, everything speeds up and you begin your day to day, you can ask your parents or care attendants you chose before getting into the cubicle, including those who will screw you with pleasure and you also chose, you don't remember but somehow you joined and assumed your role, now that you remember this...

- Hey! What are you doing? I'm your “Dr. No”. Don't believe anything that this guy is telling you or this book, this is an absolute nonsense, put down the book just now. Don't you want to? Damn! I'm going to make your mobile phone ring or that someone knocks at your door or that someone works you up, so that you believe me. When you accept this, you will come back and continue reading.

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

If it isn't quick, just give me a few minutes. Or if you already know me, just simply continue reading, to sum up What may happen? ...

Smile.

Why all these things happen to me? How have I come to read this book? Let's see, my silly friend, you chose me from a shelf or someone spoke to you to read this book which would become interesting, as an experiential book, it's very funny, Let's continue now.

THE DAY TO DAY

At this point, you will have observed that you can't control many of the events that happen in your day to day and that, your life is conditioned by many opinions and aspects of all the others, tasks, works, jobs such as we told you.

In the environment, every thought, every word, and every action will be created, not necessarily when you think about it or you express it, so remember to be positive and take care of what you express or you will modify your experience drastically. Moreover, and as if that weren't enough, your "Dr. No" is an specialist on testing if your conscience wakes up and activates your being or interior angel, or if on the contrary, it intimidates you and ruins everything, you have been doing for years, in a moment.

It will implement in your mind some doubts and fears, parameters and limits that may confuse your divine feelings. This may be your first spiritual book, this will not determine that you continue practicing your atheism, but such as I feel while writing it, you have had your time reading and devouring spiritual books of shelf help, philosophy, relaxation practices, meditation, or any energy discipline for a long time.

- How can I know it?

- We are angels, do you remember? Ok! Ok! You are not! You believe that you are a very bad sinner from the meadow and everything you want, but you are a son or a daughter of the creator in an experience of life.

- Don't you believe in angels?

- Well, don't worry, they do believe in you.

- And if they exist, why don't they answer?

- Believe me, we send 60 thousand signals to you per day, but if you don't believe in us, it will be extremely complicated for you to receive them.

Unless... it is your moment. Yes!! Remember... The creator prepares inflation points.

If it is that moment, get ready because you are going to enjoy our presence and company.

Or you can always go back to your psychologist, psychoanalyst or psychiatrist and try to forget about the subject. But we will continue there and here with you.

- Who are you in reality?*
- A being of light and unconditional love, a perfect angel.*
- And how long have I been here in the earth?*
- Well, you have been here for a while, You know? As you spoil it so much, you come here anytime you need, until the time you do it well! I recommend you to generate dharma, (give your best) and watch a film titled “How Many Days Does” with Bill Murray and Andie MacDowell, or “50 First dates” with Adam Sandler and Drew Barrymore. The objective is to love every being unconditionally and treat them like you would do it to yourself. How long have you been living with your sleepyhead or the sleepyhead Day? How many lives or days did you try to conquer your “Dr. No” with your unconditional love?*
- A while! Maybe you don't believe in the reincarnation or resurrection or the possibility of going back to life. But nothing happens, this, with 20 lives more will be over. »*

I know they are a billion of questions which appear, this is good, you just simply nod.

- Loved angels help me in my day to day, thanks my loved ones, it is like this.

- Everyone who comes to my home can only hope to receive unconditional love from me.

Now, I'm going to describe some experiences that will happen or have already happened in your life with a material and spiritual point of view.

WHILE WE ARE SLEEPING

When our body is sleeping, our spirit takes advantage of this time so as to help, study, solve, etc... It inspects the soul vehicle, or it visits others, or others visit you in your vehicle. At a material level, the dream is comforting for our body at the same time that it is necessary. In the dream state you could be a person that doesn't remember his dreams, you could remember them and these could be merely a review of conflicts or possible solutions to daily or material tasks.

At a spiritual level, you can have connections with your family and loved ones, teachers, angels, you can receive their announcements or you can enjoy their company, you can travel, visit this sphere or other ones, kingdoms, or lives, you can help spirits in their different processes, stay like a guard in your home, there are plenty of options and experiences.

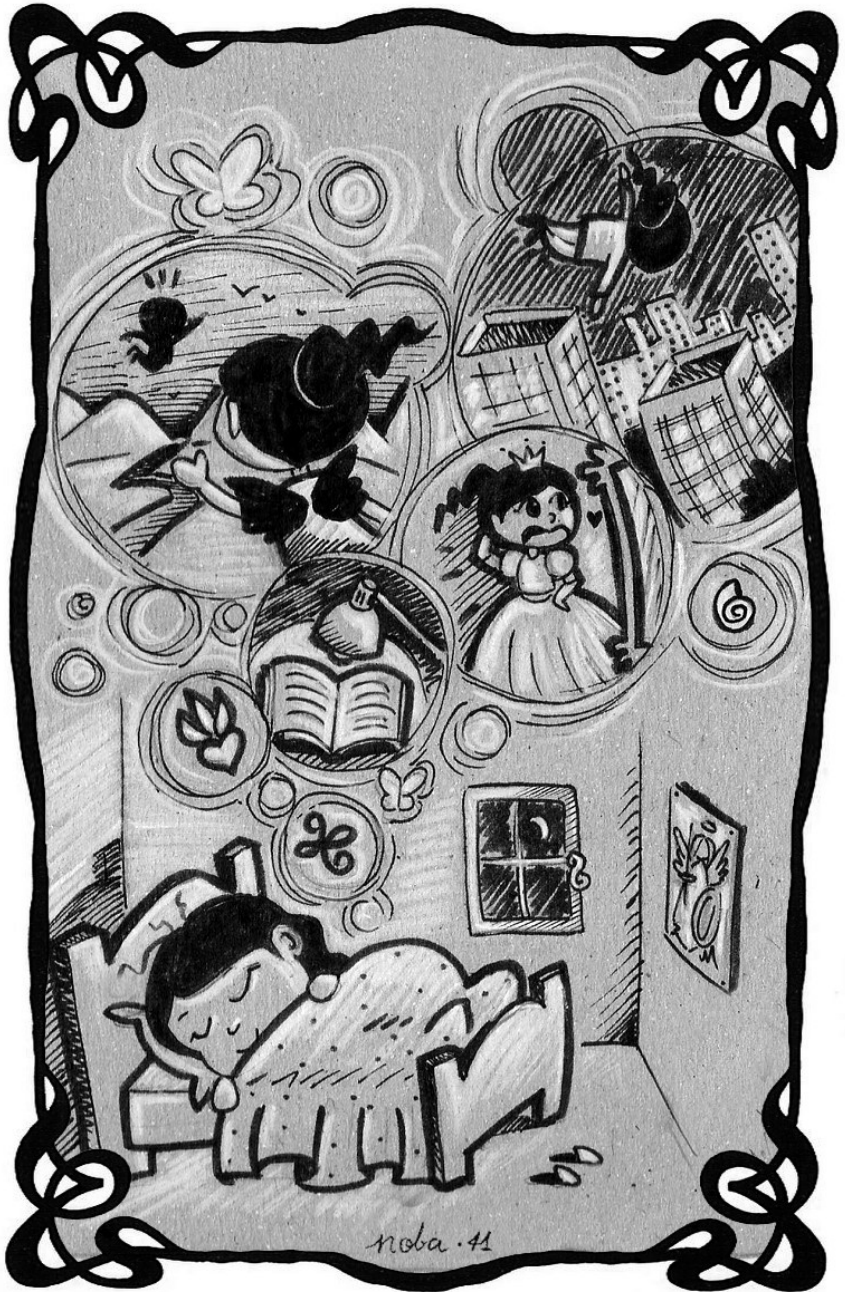

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

Up till now, in most cases it comes true the fact that you don't remember anything about all these experiences. They may be material dreams or spiritual visits. But if something has the evolution material-energy-spiritual from the being and our spirit is that, all this can change in a natural way in any moment.

Please, don't worry too much if this doesn't happen, everything is all right. Make a practice of any type so as to help this natural process, it is like the sportsman that he trains himself in the rink, but then if he is not classified to run the following day, he won't stop from his determination and will work and will continue training.

One day, maybe during an unexpected rest, in a simple nap or during a travel or visit, it will happen and it will be a whole experience the fact of feeling and living it.

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

"Our angels and loved ones can visit us while we are dreaming"

DREAM DISORDER

In the material world, the dream disorders can have different diagnosis.

In most cases, it is solved by pill treatments, natural remedies with plants or similar things. Material solutions for the body, some disorders persist with the medication or with the consumption of other medications which are used for other illnesses or hormonal adjustments, etc. The famous stress appears when we think about all the negative things that could happen to us. We can feed it with thoughts of excessive worries at the same time, our worries or other people's ones. And so, all the above create the perfect breeding ground to produce dream disorders.

At a spirit level, these disorders represent a change to a material level of thinking or spirit evolution.

Our spirit is the one who decides when our body and material mind must begin their evolution and implement their changes. So as to help to stable the dream, we can begin any practices of spiritual relaxation, prayers, incense, meditation, breathing exercises before going to bed, write about our fears and worries, there are several disciplines. I recommend having an Amethyst near the bed.

The material world and the spiritual world solutions can be applied together and see the results, in both cases it should be beneficial and stable the dream disorder.

It is recommended to take advantage of the extra time, reading, having a walk, doing exercise or tasks, lying in a relaxing way and breathe, above all, doing activities that we like, the dream will appear in a natural way.

If the dream disorder is produced because of spiritual visits, we should implement an spiritual reading, let you be guided by your intuition, and a spiritual practice, even if you think it is a very materialistic or surrealistic situation, even if you are a man or a woman of science, and you are an agnostic or an atheistic, your spirit requires your attention and it is possible that some of your brothers or sisters spirits as well.

The usual thing in these cases is to think that we are driving crazy.

«Well, Follow your intuition!», you will have tests, you will visit psychologists, psychoanalysts, psychiatrists, and if by then, they don't find anything, they will hospitalize you or they will give you pill treatments and so you will lose your inhibitions from this world and you will look like a zombie in many cases. Smile. Because you know what I'm talking about!

May it be that in these cases in which they don't find anything is because there isn't anything to be found? It may be that nothing strange happens to you and it is a normal process.

If you look for some information, you will find out the this spirit world is real and that somehow from now on , you will have to learn to walk in this world, at the same time that you enjoy the material world.

The process is complicated and it can be a real nightmare, but this only supposes a manifestation of our thoughts, doubts or fears.

If we accept that it is real and natural, we will learn little by little to walk in this environment. For experience in the spiritual world, the feelings or negative practices will lead us to suffer our worst nightmares in our material and spiritual day to day.

If on the contrary, we develop disciplines so as to cultivate positive feelings of Sympathy, Forgiveness and Unconditional Love, something marvelous will happen.

This process can last as much as the mind of the materialistic ego or the spirit decides.

I share two prayers which gave me positive results. Try this, and it will not change your mind according to the religion you believe in or if you are agnostic, atheistic or realistic.

After Reading them, please close your eyes for a minute and breathe in a relaxing way, this won't be an irreversible harm for your ego, on the contrary, it can be a useful tool to relax your mind.

 PRAYER TO GUIDE THE LIGHT

In the name of almighty God I forgive you and free you from your load so that you go to the light.

Loved Archangels accompany this brother, Saint Michael and Saint Gabriel are guiding you, you are forgiven and loved in the totality, thank you for choosing me brother, I love you unconditionally.

Blessed we are.

Thanks, thanks, thanks.

 DECREE OF EMOTIONAL HEAL, HEALTH AND SPIRITUAL ABUNDANCE

In the name of almighty God, I ask for the light and assistance of Archangel Raphael and our Mother Mary, to turn on your heal green light over me and my loved ones, and all my brothers. Send me a fleet of heal angels to heal my emotional, professional, and sensitive world and all my being and to everybody. In harmony, peace and love for everybody.

Thank you father because it is like this.

After this, you will have some antennas and wings and you will be turned into an alien or a believer. Smile!!
These Prayers follow the pattern of my faith; change the words you need, “God” for the name that you want, (...Creator, Universe, Divine Spirit, Energy, etc...).

Moreover, if you wish to express it in a different way, modify these Prayers. Remember! When you do it, they will carry your energy and you will have designed them exclusively for you.

I have checked the effectiveness of these Prayers with me and with other people and mates and they have become very useful.

Remember two clues:

- Everything you say, everything you think, everything you do is created and you will implement it in your life experience.

- So as to obtain different results, we must carry out new things, if you always do the same, the result will be the same.

GUIDE TO THE LIGHT

Many of our brothers and sisters have to solve and attend their relatives, or spirit brothers and sisters who aren't embodied, so that they give their definitive step to the light.

Driving a spirit to the light seems complicated, but it is easy, I'm talking to you from my own experience. Leave behind fears and doubts, knowing that at all times, we are attended by our spiritual guides. If you are afraid, carry out the divine protection prayer and ask Saint Michael to attend you and move your fears away.

DIVINE PROTECTION, IN THE FACE OF DOUBTS, FEARS AND DIFFICULTIES

* Urgent:

“Loved Archangel Michael, help me, help me, help me.”

*.Meditated:

“Saint Michael in front, Saint Michael behind,
Saint Michael on the right, Saint Michael on the left,
Saint Michael below, Saint Michael above,
Saint Michael wherever I go, Saint Michael wherever I am, Saint Michael inside my heart,
I am your love protecting here, I am your love protecting here, I am your love protecting here,
And with full faith I decree your protection to be expressed Here and now.
Thanks loved Archangel Saint Michael
Thanks, thanks, thanks.”

If this does not give place, forget your fear. Attend and help your spirit brother or sister. If Michael doesn't intercede, it is because it's your work. Forget about prejudices and stop asking you who you are so as to do this service, just simply do it with full faith in Jesus and our divine guides and in the name of God.

In meditation or sleep state, we can talk and listen to these spirit brothers who require our help.

How do you know that it is a non-embodied spirit?

You notice energies or presences, you hear them asking for your help, if you bear a great load, sensitive people suffer from your disease or sorrow by spirit empathy.

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

Pray for them, express your gratitude because they have chosen us to help them, tell them that their place is in the light, that they can solve what has been pending, that they don't have anything to be afraid of and assign them guides so that they help them.

Talk to them in meditation and prayer, offer yourselves as communication under the protection of our Guides.

“Loved Gabriel intercedes to receive the message that this brother or sister desires to communicate, myself or another angel will send it to his addressee, Thanks.”

The Spirit will revive in you the moment of his pain or torment. Remember that what he shows you isn't yours! But heal this moment for your brother, put your hands on him and free him from his load so that he comes back home.

If the spirit brother or sister is presented through another brother or sister and you see that he doesn't know what to do, hug him, and carry out the prayer to guide the light. If he is presented through you or when the communication finishes, carry out the prayer to guide the light.

Prayers can be made mentally and can be changed in their expression so that they carry implicit your own energy.

PRAYER TO GUIDE TO THE LIGHT

In the name of almighty God I forgive you and free you from your load so that you go to the light. Loved Archangels accompany this brother, Saint Michael and Saint Gabriel will guide you, you are forgiven and loved in the totality, thank you for choosing me brother, I love you unconditionally, blessed we are.

Thanks, thanks, thanks.

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

“Loved Archangels accompany this brother”

If after the process a physical pain remained, ask Raphael to attend you and free the entire load that our brother left in our being. You must always show gratitude. The feeling is normally of heat or cold and a feeling of relief and Peace, it isn't describable.

RECITE THE EMOTIONAL HEAL, HEALTH AND SPIRITUAL ABUNDANCE

In the name of almighty God, I ask for the light and assistance of Archangel Raphael and our Mother Mary, to turn on your heal green light over me and my loved ones, and all my brothers. Send me a fleet of heal angels to heal my emotional, professional, and sensitive world and all my being and to everybody, thank you father because it is like this.

The estate where this happens will be cleaned by the angels and Raphael, you can put a white candle band, a stick of incense or rosemary, or a white carnation or a flower you like in gesture of gratitude. THANKS.

I have considered appropriate the fact of repeating the two prayers in this explanation.

MEDIUM

Energy during a session with a medium, in due time Allan Kardec carried out some studies about the energy that appears in all the people and is activated in the mediums.

He classified and gave documentary evidence of dozen of cases in the whole world, by carrying out some tests of all type.

This energy exists and is real, I consider it an evolution of the human being spirit.

I want to add that you have to accept that the bad ones do not exist. The spirits in the earth who are embodied “with physical body” or unembodied “without physical body” were human.

A soul vehicle is only occupied by a spirit, without taking into account the totality who is always present in the vehicle and in your spirit. The most advanced beings are the only ones who can occupy a soul vehicle which has already been occupied and that would be to carry out some guide functions by someone to channel.

There have been some cases in which some advanced spirits occupied some vehicles which were just unoccupied, only by a main good and they followed the experience of life or the projection of this vehicle, assuming the functions of this material projection, ego, expressing that they are from another spirit. I repeat, it can only be reached by a light being of a superior vibration.

In the normal process when the life stops in a body, the sole deactivates its systems and the spirit can get up from this pilot chair and go out of this vehicle.

It can be blocked, if because of its affection for life projection, something remains pendent and the spirit captivates the emotional part of the projection, thinking that his soul vehicle is still operational, this way, the projections that many people denominate like, ghosts, dark presences, entities, beings, etc. are created.

- They are SPIRITS! -

And they are really people that need some help, the mediums, the ones who channel or sensitive of divine presence and their own guides can help them. But, they can choose to help, remember free will.

I know that this is complicated to understand and accept but I'm talking about my own experience.

Karma: Opposed energy which is generated by the spirit in its life experience, this energy could block the disconnection of the spirit and the opening of the door to cross the "Torii" (1) back home.

In these cases, as I have mentioned, not only its guides take part, but a medium if it is necessary and the ones who channel in many of the cases as well. In other cases which are more extreme and complicated, when the spirit is convinced to be a dark terrible being, the embodied angels, who are operational for the mentioned cases, take part by using their divine presence.

(1)Torii: A traditional Japanese arch, like an entrance gate.

Somehow, for a while, the sensitive ones are learning to distinguish themselves among us.

This is something that is activated in a natural way because of the evolution and vibration of our spirit with the authorization of the Totality, God, Universe.

The ones who Kardec denominated as naughty spirits, full of jokes, dark and even with other names who were created by the fear patterns from the human beings, were also human. The spirit spends a fixed period of terrestrial time where it is blocked in its soul vehicle.

It has the capacity to create its own fake hell where it will suffer its torment and it will even use the energy that the medium spirit generates so as to torment the easily scared ones who are embodied in the same vibratory frequency.

The sensitive person who takes part was called exorcist by catholics. Anyway! Another name which transmits the fear patterns, which were exaggerated, fed and so on. When the mind accepts something which is a fact, the spirit recreates it and if the spirit believes its own lie, it can continue experimenting even though and in a technical way, it should have crossed the "Torii" door and should have gone to the light.

No spirit can cross the “Torii” door without the authorization of the guard archangels and its own angel who will become one when passing, providing that the spirit liberates itself from its karma, its load.

When you came you didn't bring anything, when you go back you won't be able to take anything with you, with the exception of the unconditional love experience that you received and gave, although the process is longer. This was explained in many books written by Xico Xavier, a very well-known spirita (a person who works or communicates with spirits) and by many other writers.

The medium or the medium spirit lets a soul vehicle communicate and express and even move by using the communications of the medium soul vehicle. I repeat, unless it is about a very high vibration or the own Totality, it is not possible that it occupies the soul vehicle of the medium.

It could come to deactivate the medium will and walk freely and have its experiences if the spirit of the medium soul vehicle is technically “snoozing” in its cubicle for not having life loyalty.

In these cases a sensitive can take part and deactivate all these connections by using a simple hug around the individual from the physical projections.

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

Here like in every Free will. If it is deactivated, it is an inferior spirit, but if it continues operational, it is a guide or even more, but remember! For all these so high beings, we are all equal, they will never be considered above nobody. If that were not the case, it would be a joker and the true tenant neither values its body nor its life.

There are so many variations of spirit behavior that I would need many books to catalogue them. This work was already done by Allan Kardec.

DOES THE SPIRIT COME BACK DIRECTLY TO THE TOTALITY WHEN PASSING THE “TORII” PORTAL?

Everything depends on its vibration. There are spiritual energetic spheres so that the spirit recovers its vibration while going to the totality. We would call them, heavens, celestial cities, etc.

There are some cases of spirits with very high vibrations in which it is possible, for the totality, everything is possible.

THE ONES WHO CHANNEL

The channeling is the evolution of the medium energy, in these cases there are no occupation. The spirit and its sole vehicle are fully conscious of the communication, this one is generated in harmony and it is a temporary union to express whatever needed and always according to the divine plan.

There are many that channel, the channeling provides some information of the knowledge basis of the totality spirit or the akashic (1) registers of the angel spirit. So that a Medium develops its energy to channel, it must get rid of all its doubts and fears and practice a discipline of serenity, unconditional love and compassion.

(1)Akashic: It is like the spirit memory, everything that has happened since the beginning of the times.

DIVINE PRESENCE “EMBODIED ANGELS, TEACHERS, OBSERVER GUARDS, GUIDES...”

There are embodied humans that don't destroy the channeling connection in their lives and they let the spirit and the angel join together in their own life experience, being their unauthorized “Dr. No”. Their simple presence makes better the environment, the comfort and it regulates the energy of everyone in its presence.

They haven't come to judge, they haven't come to demonstrate anything, they have come to give the greatest possible example of unconditional love. With their word, thought, work and example.

They are capable enough to know the aspects of their embodied brothers. Their sensitive connections are activated according to the great divine plan. These people offer themselves before being born to the service of the spirit evolution and are aware, since their arrival or their awakening in this world, of their divine mission and their role in the divine plan. They don't have the obligation to demonstrate anything and they walk among the ones who sleep. They are the same as we are, but they are totally conscious of their potential.

They will use their potential according to the divine plan.

THE GOOD AND THE BAD

From the spirit world of the totality, this concept does not exist, it is only the spirit experience, but one has to be responsible of the bad use consequences of the spirit energy, your thought, Word and Work. “The Bad one is not born but done.” And if he becomes conscious, it is never late to rectify. If it isn't like this, he will believe his own lie that he is a bad one, dominated by his “Dr. No” ego and he will generate “a tremendous Karma”, as Susan Powell would say, remaining blocked in his sole vehicle and disturbing the rest. A detail more!. Think... For a moment, you are a spirit who needs help, and the one who can help you thinks it is superior than you and moreover it calls you material thing, entity, being, ghost, appearance, etc... (or even worse things), as you are also a creator, you generate what you express, the sorrowful spirit believes that and it creates it, it gets into its role of evil. And we have already made a scene!

DR. NO. NEGATIVE ASPECT OF THE BEING, THE SUFFERING MASTER, AND YOUR GUARD ANGEL

We are going to call the first angel, who will accompany you during all the way, “Dr. No”.

It is a part of you, and as I mentioned before, you will distinguish it because it denies everything, it feeds your doubts and fears and it will take all the experiences, that may give you happiness and express unconditional love, away from you.

- Is it bad?

- Let's see! Bad, bad? Let's see... It is as it is...!

Accept it and it will accompany you during all your Life. The second angel is a love, your guard angel, most of the time it remains quiet and it usually complains because you don't listen to it, it says that you only hears "Dr. No" and without realizing you give up of being the light and the angel that in fact you are.

ANGEL "DR.NO"

"Ah!! You are right about what you are thinking now. This guy has a bad head, all this is a nonsense. Close the book, let's stop reading, all in all this doesn't do any good." It is easy to distinguish it. Your hopes won't come out well, you are always hurting yourself... That Project... Leave it right now! What are you going to try it for? Moreover, nobody is supporting you, and you argued about it ... Don't even speak to him!, Don't look at him next time, Fuck him! Are we catching his drift? He dedicates himself to feed the selfishness and the pride, by taking the experience of life away from us.

GUARD ANGEL

- I believe in you. Trust, Let's try! Come on! Forward. Everything will go out well, Cheer up! Continue, walk, try it, come on! We can, have faith in you.

We can see the vibration difference from the messages that are being implemented by means of the thought and the feelings in our life experience, and while we are sitting down there, watching the scene looking like a spirit, the physical projection ego decides, what am I going to do now? What am I going to choose?

- Oh my God! What a mess!

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

"Dr. No, suffering master VS your Guard Angel"

* DR. NO'S SKILLS

If you get distracted for a second, he will manipulate your console and the physical projection and he will lead you to every storm and tangle that he is able to, so that you learn in his basis about “suffering skill” after all, he wants you to graduate in the suffering school. «Let's see fool! Here we come to be happy».

He handles the 100 per cent of your negative thoughts, your negative actions... « How to know that they are negative? » They damage your physical, mental or emotional integration, or the one of the other person, animal or thing. As if that weren't enough, he has the ability to activate the same energy in your environment, and he will not hesitate to do it so as to check your auto skill of the being, he will put your peace to the text, and he will shake you and test you by doing a test to you.

- What do you think? Do you think that you are going to wake up every time that you think you have taken a step to your light and interior being?

- And How the Hell! But bloody hell! Let's see what the hell I do to stop it! And not only to stop it on me but he doesn't reprimand me from the environment.

He will attack us with what we love the most

He will confront our love skill with our relatives and loved beings, and when this doesn't work, he will use unknown beings and the own environment.

You are going to see an example:

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

Imagine that for an instant, you want to dedicate 5 minutes a day to meditation. You prepare the room, the incense, the illumination, the music, everything relaxing thing, you create your atmosphere, you sit down comfortably and you get ready to meditate. Suddenly, the youngest of the family bursts in the room shouting at the top of his lungs.

- Daddy! What are you doing? Meditating again? Have you got your eyes closed Daddy? He even touch one of my eyes to see if it is like this, and I answer.

- Yes, Can you wait for a few minutes? I'll be with you right away.

Meanwhile, with your eyes closed, you smile and breathe softly. Let's see!

Question.

- Who was it? Do you think it was your youngest son or daughter?

Smile.

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

"The meditation is a being state"

The second minute arrives and suddenly, your daughter, the second one, bursts in, (your wife is still sleeping or maybe she pretends to be asleep after the fuss of the first one).

- My brother doesn't let me put the channel I want to watch. «My God!». At night, it is easier to meditate while you are sleeping, so I must do this before you wake up in the morning». And this way your particular “Dr. No” looks for the exact way of removing you from your meditation state.

After observing this first attempt, you decide to reform your time-table of the first meditation of the day, and you change it, you get up earlier, you make less noise, everything is perfect, and you begin to meditate...

The first minute passes by and all is quiet on the western front...

« Oh perfect, Yes, here I go!», and suddenly... « A fart?». Damn!, It is your youngest son who sneaked in between the sheets at four o'clock in the morning. Didn't you remember? Well, keep firm, remember, you smile and stands so as not to crack up which would wake him up and that would even be more interesting. You continue in your centre, meditating and then, the phone rings, answer it if you want. You know who he is! «I am your “Dr. No”». But, can't you see that you wanted to meditate? What did you expect? And this way your patience cultivation happens, you keep going and you modify the times. The bell rings, she is the neighbor... Yes that one who is never in but now she is, and you are told.

- Go and see! Smile. Because now I know that you understand me. Moreover, if you don't believe me, try it and you will see it! I'm sure you will hear a dog barking, or someone will shout out from the kitchen.

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

- *Darling!! Have you thrown the trash out? Oh dear!
You are ...? Meditating?*

- ;$&#@%!

And this way little by little your “Dr. No” trains you to be capable enough to meditate and hear your own thoughts. Some great masters said once, “You have to be capable enough to meditate in harmony in a room as well as in the middle of a market of greengrocers shouting loudly”. As soon as you connect, maintain your connection and cultivate your serenity. Thanks Mark and Elizabeth.

“The meditation is a being state”, but you can convert it into a discipline that you will only search in very concrete moments, the rest of the time enjoy the hurricane. Now tell me who was interrupting you constantly? Dr. No from your spirit brothers’ vehicle, whatever it is his role in this life projection.

* OUR GUARD ANGEL

His panel is operational and he sends, as I have already said, 60 thousand subtle signals to your environment every day, a pen, a heart, a sentence, a song. He can also use the panel of the others.

He sends a friend with a hug and an encouragement sentence in the most essential moments, a comment in a book, newspaper or television, just when you are thinking about your worries. He express himself in the elements, earth, water, air, fire, spirit. He uses your spirit energy to communicate with you, but in most of the cases, these signals just pass unnoticed to our senses.

I express my gratitude for what is changing, if anything brings the new era to the humanity is the awakening of its conscience.

When you become conscious, you begin to perceive these signals, you become more human, more sensitive, and some divine feelings begin to wake up inside you, spirit empathy.

He whispers with everything around you. Just accept it. He drives you to listen to a conversation with sympathy, love and comprehension. He teaches you to share and love unconditionally, this happens in a natural way, he wishes that you remember how to love unconditionally everything which goes around you and every being.

AND WHEN AM I GOING TO PILOT?

You will love God above everything. But, how? If you are not capable to accept and love yourself unconditionally? Your thought, following the learnt pattern and taught by “Dr. No”, mistreats you, it judges you. If you did this to another person, it would be psychological bullying, and even psychological mistreat, « How can it be? ¿What can I do? »

Let's see. Observe your day to day, it may be the time to do an inventory. Here, I will introduce Uriel to you. He reminds us how to love, accept and forgive ourselves. Do you think that this is not important?

You'll see, if you don't love yourself, how will you be able to love the others?

ARCHANGEL URIEL AND AURORA

“So as to help all the others, first you have to help yourself and then, only then, you will love thy neighbour as thyself. So that the others love you unconditionally, first you have to love, forgive and accept yourself the way you are”.

When you carry out this unconditional love state for you, you will be able to put it into practice in the others.

URIEL'S INVENTORY

Uriel recommended this practice to me, it's very easy, just take 4 sheets.

* In the first one, we need that you enumerate and write everything that frightens you or produces doubts in you, whatever it is. Search well in your mind, don't leave anything, write it down. Under each doubt, a fear is born.

* In the second one we need that you write about all your worries. Here, an aside! If you need a packet of 1000 sheets, Don't worry, write and enumerate them.

* In the third sheet, you must write everything you love unconditionally, everything you love without any conditions, whatever happens, whatever you have done. Examine your mind. Come on I know you can! Smile.

Because now you know who I am. Come on continue.

* In the fourth one I need that you write about your dreams, you won't see what you dream when you sleep but your dreams, your illusions for this life, remember them, Come on! Everything you wish to do, Everything you wish to live. Well! Now breathe a little, I know it is a great effort what I'm asking you.

Now, Put them in front of you and read them. You are everything you have written just now!

What would you change? Where do we begin?

We'll begin working with the first sheet, let's review your doubts and your fears.

The fears are born of the doubts, fears of... pain, rejection, not accepting the failure, nor accepting the truth, or the mistake as part of the experience. Example: "Death", it is simply a step more of the life and another experience for our spirit.

To eliminate a fear we have to know it, but so as not to go through the trauma of the experience, « What can we do? ... Look for in the large basis of the knowledge which is already written. Read».

Look for books which talk about own experiences about what you are afraid of, imagine that you are afraid of death, then look for writings, documentaries, testimonies of people who have come back from death. May you think that your spirit dies once?

You are infinite, you had a beginning but you will not have an end.

To sum up, so as to eliminate our doubts, we must know, when you don't know a person, you are even afraid of talking to this person, « And if he bites me? Or whatever? », when you begin talking and listening to this person, you start to know him and there comes a time in which you are not afraid of him, yet. You include him in your acquaintance circle, in your love circle and you accept him the way he is. Moreover, remember, your “Dr. No”, will constantly confront you to your doubts and fears.

Love your fears unconditionally, look for the way to pass your fears to what you love and accept unconditionally and project positive thought.

Any time that you solve a doubt and overcome a fear by confronting it, this one will disappear, and you will confirm that when a doubt or fear disappear, you will be able to cross out automatically half of your worries, put this to the test and you'll see. When you balance this first list and you find the way to pass it to unconditional love, you will be able to work with efficiency the second sheet.

So as to work with the second sheet, worries, well if the first sheet saturates you, begin with this one. And if you already solved it, don't stop, continue.

We have to review our worries and divide them into two groups, what depends on my direct intervention and what depends on the others.

If it depends on the others. Why do you worry? You won't be able to do anything until the others take part. Learn to delegate.

Affirm about this worry

"Thank you loved angels because I know you are working on it."

Affirm this about all the list, Try it!

Now, you will see, choose one or two written things, and dedicate your time to solve them, these things are the ones that you have to act directly, I've already said that you have to delegate the others, and don't do any tricks, when your "Dr. No" comes to you with the worry, you have to tell him. Oh! Don't remind me this one. It is delegated to the angels, I gave it to God.

If passed this time, you can't solve it, delegate it, give up, trust, because if it doesn't come out as you wish, it is because they want to teach you something.

This way, continue working with this list, I repeat, you have to solve the worries which come from your fears with knowledge about the subject.

When you can put the two first lists in the third sheet, what you love unconditionally, you will see that you can create what you wrote down in your fourth list, your dreams, your divine mission, your happiness, your mission for this life. Be as you wish to be.

A question, Did you write yourself in the third sheet? ...You can take this as a joke but you will see that it is real, you can be too deep for anything in your lists, but if it isn't the exact moment, you won't be able to do anything.

Accept it.

I remind you that: “So as to obtain different results we must do new things, if you always do the same, the result will be the same.”

This practice from Uriel will help you to accept you with your virtues and your faults, it will help you to understand yourself, and to love yourself the way you are.

If you are not convinced, you can visit the psychologist or the psychoanalyst, or the psychiatrist who will turn out to be much more convincing and cheaper. I have to say that their work is laudable, but how many visits do you need to begin accepting and confronting yourself?

Who decides when you are ready to go ahead? The doctor, You, Your family, the creator?

THE CREATOR AND THE CO-CREATOR

It is time that you know the biggest truth of this world, everything that has happened to you, everything, absolutely everything has been created by you.

This way, your “Dr. No”, will try that you stop reading the book now, or maybe you say “Not all!”.

- Let's see, Who responds by refusing everything?

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

- But... My parents?, The others?, The pain?, The losses?

Wait, I'm going to tell you again.

“You created everything, absolutely everything”

You didn't accept the loss of that loved relative, and you hated the idea of losing him and you forgot to love him when you had him by your side, so now you blame God for not giving you enough time. But you don't remember that before taking your pilot seat of your soul vehicle, you chose everything that today is happening to you, everything! And the creator accepted your suggestions, but you told him.

- Surprise me!.

- Don't you remember?

When you hated, you required, judged, criticized, reproached, etc., you let “Dr. No” take the control and created and expressed your entire pain world. Here, confront your “Dr. No” and ask him.

- Hey! What's up with you?

So as to deactivate your “Dr. No” you must love unconditionally, without any exceptions, including the ones that you considered bad or responsible for your experience. Aren't you capable of forgiving? Here is, how you treat yourself.

What you don't like about the others is what you don't like about yourself. If you don't like that the others do it to you, Why do you do it to them? Our experience of life and universe is so interactive that what you give is multiplied.

THANKFULNESS

Have you ever thought of expressing your gratitude for everything that has been given to you? Weren't you given anything?

Let's see, put your hand in your chest, close your eyes and feel the beat, this beat is generated by the energy that you created and it continues beating, I'm sure it has a purpose. Ask yourself why you didn't write down about yourself in the third list, Yes, You'll see, why didn't you write "I love myself unconditionally"?

Believe in you because believing is creating. When they wrote "You will love God above all else and thy neighbour as thyself" they were really talking about the same. You and everything which goes around you is God, you may agree or not, but so that your life changes, you must love him.

Then and only then he will pay attention. You just tell him, say THANKS.

As I expressed at the beginning, if the word “God” gives you spasms as if you were the little girl in the exorcist, just change this word by...energy, universe, or whatever you will. His reaction is understandable, we were killed so many times in other lives in the name of God, that now many of them react this way.

Your “Dr. No” says:

- Don't believe anything, have you seen it? Just leave this book of nonsense. Please, are you going to take it seriously?. Look, I thought that all this about the spirituality was very serious and disciplined, can't you see that this guy is tricking you? Aren't you listening to me? Just leave it! Can't you hear me? I'm Here! I will make the phone ring again. Or I will make someone ring the doorbell, or I will even end the toilet paper. Ah! You didn't look. ¡Ja, ja, ja, ja! You are mine!!!!

Have you released, yet? There is an eternity of lives, and these angels, masters of suffering, are always doing the same.

We Continue.

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

“Believe in you because believing is creating”

SPIRITUAL DAWN SYMPTOMS AND SPIRIT EMPATHY

Any time that you get new knowledge and experiences, record them in your mind with the possibility that there are other truth ways, have your mind always open to new ideas and new possibilities.

A human being develops mentally, forcefully and spiritually in relation to what his ego accepts as absolute facts and limits. Whereas this ego persists in those unique options, he will create conflicts, all this dressed with the chorus of the closed and negative mind patterns from our “Dr. No”, are perfect to spoil it.

If any human being always said or did the same, we would still be prehistoric beings.

Once, in an instant, a being decided to experience new options, new possibilities, It is also true that this can lead to spoil it, but any time that he was called a madman, then he was admired for his creativity and brilliance because he went on and found another way which contributed to an improvement for the ones who came after.

Some of them made sacrifices for their mistakes, but, remember! The Un-incarnation is only a process more.

We come back and improve this world, the pity is that we didn't learn from our errors in the past to improve the world that our children will inherit, or just leave it the same that we inherited without getting it worse.

The acceptance or not of new energies, ideas, knowledge, or possibilities, can affect our organism: electric discharges on your back, headaches without any sense, spontaneous sleep, dizziness in places where before you could stay with more or less people. I encourage you to look for information about this, but I will tell you about your spirit empathy.

One day, all of a sudden, you begin feeling your illnesses and worries which are unaware of your own body, that's to say, another one suffers from these pains and as you are beside him his pains are also yours. « Oh my God! What is this? »

Congratulations! You have just activated your spirit empathy.

And how is this driven?

❖ SPIRIT EMPATHY

Do you remember your intuition and your perception of the situations? Well, when all this is developed, it activates the spirit empathy, the ability of feeling what the others feel, without needing to be told. Well, you ask.

- hey, have you got a headache?, Answer.

- And how do you know it?

When this begins, I recommend to practice any energetic discipline as Reiki, Universal Energy, Presence, etc...Choose one of them, you are going to need to know the display and the connections that your empathy energy is going to carry out with the physical projections of your spirit brothers and their soul vehicles.

Here, I will tell you,

- Following the logic of the earth, if you take your finger and you poke it with a needle, the logic tells you that that finger is yours, because it hurts.

- You needn't do the proof.

- Well, What if your spirit brother's finger is poked and it also hurts? What does the logic say about this?

- Simple, it is also yours because it hurts.

When we see all the pain that is around us and in the world and it hurts. What would the logic say? Is it also yours?

Oh Dear! What is this that you are trying to explain to us? Something evident, we have activated your ability so that you become more human and conscious, you suffer because you only keep your eyes on the pain patterns, something that your "Dr. No" has been trying to worsen for all these years, we call angelic human to this human evolution.

From my personal experience and being a practicante of Reiki and in Person Energy, I say.

- If I can feel it, I can heal it.

In person Energy. As I haven't found concrete documentation about my way of feeling, but some approximations and coincidences in other conscious people, I have decided to call it like this. It may have another name.

As a very good friend of this life and other lives usually says, We come here to serve in a full expression of unconditional love, we are divine sympathy, merciful and we recognize the light that there is in every being, although this being is as blind as a bat.

Spirit Empathy. Would be the ability of feeling thoughts, energy, feelings, and diseases or material body symptoms of the incarnated spirits “with body” or un-incarnated “without it”.

HOW DO I KNOW IF IT BELONGS TO AN UN-INCARNATED SPIRIT?

Example: You are well but, as you are a sensitive and empathized person, when you go into a room where there are no people, suddenly you begin feeling, whatever it is! And your body express it like sickness, nauseas, presences, diverse pains... You can clear your doubts by consulting a doctor. But if nothing is found, it is because there is nothing to be found, since what you feel doesn't belong to your physical body, to the projection of your soul vehicle.

Then it is obvious that it belongs to other spirit projections. If it belongs to a person, it will be easy to identify if he is near, or if he phones you.

By practicing an energy discipline, as I told you before, you will have the necessary tools to send the precise love to the environment. Don't become attached to the result, be conscious, maybe you are only required to feel it and express that help, the result belongs entirely to the Totality.

A message, a conversation, a cup of tea, a prayer, an achievement of good thoughts, or whatever comes from your goodness and heart will be a relief that you will provide to the process, if you have hit the nail on the head, you will feel a relief, a peace and serenity that will make you feel better.

If this sickness or sorrow belongs to an un-incarnated spirit, and as you are a conscious and spiritual being of light, put your heart to work so as to ask and relieve the same that you would do with an incarnated one, because this one is an un-incarnated spirit that thinks he is alive here, as there is more life after death and maybe he needs love and understanding so as to follow his way.

Remember this, Death doesn't exist. When you think that you die here, what happens is that you are born there, and from there you can choose to be born here, you just go to the light, there everything will be explained to you and you will be given the possibility of coming back if you wish.

MY EXPERIENCE

Following, I am going to narrate three experiences with spirits among hundred of experiences I have had for these years.

I remember a night when I was resting on my bed as always, sleeping, but in that state of glimpse, or in that sphere of the spirit where what we feel is more experienced than ever, where our relatives and masters visit us. I saw a shadow which was approaching me, it was hesitating, and I could feel how it touched my arm, but when I looked at it, it let me loose and got away.

It's true that when someone touches you and until the moment that we understand what is happening, he can let you in a paralysis state and you can't wake up until he lets you lose, I suppose that this will be what many mediums feel, but this is because there isn't a cession by myself but an attention.

Every time that I'm touched, my spirit empathy is activated and I notice, why not noticing! Its worry, its pain, here I thank my "Dr. No" for having taught me to feel this. Thanks! My part of an angel begins to analyse the origin of this pain and I decide what to do.

I proceed to talk to you and establish a communication.
- Please! Don't be afraid, get closer, let me see you, tell me what is happening to you.

- In some cases, it isn't necessary because I know the problem and I can talk about it.

 *IS THERE ANY BEER IN HEAVEN?

On this occasion, I felt the man and told him.

- Appear yourself!

He was very rude, He is thought to have accessed to mediums on other occasions, he chose that way of expressing himself and I resisted, but for a moment I listened to my guide who said:

«Let him do it, wait, let him be expressed»

I activated my guard and guide angel and said:

- Let it be!

At that moment, the feeling was to be together, and I felt that he didn't want to leave the earth and go to the light, his biggest fear, and here you are going to laugh, was that there wasn't "any appetizer or beer" in heaven or in the light ... « Oh my God! »

At that moment, I sat up and while looking at myself in the wardrobe mirror, just in front of me, I could see him perfectly, instead of seeing my reflection, I saw his. Being totally conscious, he was speaking through the mirror.

- Man, how long have you been like that?

- More than 100 years.

- But, let's see simpleton, who has told you that there isn't any appetizer or beer in heaven?

- Well, the others.

- I see!, and tell me, did the others go to the light?

- No, they didn't.

- Then, How do they know what there is or there isn't in the light?

- Now that you say it, you are right.

- Let's see, I understand that you like the appetizers, look! I will ask you something. Imagine that you were God for a moment, tell me, what would you put in your heaven? His face lighted up and said:

- Oh!!! I would put a cold beer barrel and some appetizer. All the other things are irrelevant for me. I would accept everything except the lack of appetizer and beer.

- My God!, ¿Are you saying seriously that you don't know if there is what you like there and that you don't go to the light because you think that there isn't any appetizer or cold beer there?

He looked at my eyes and said:

- Yes, I am.

- Well, what do you know about what is coming after?

- Well, I don't know or I don't remember, is there anything else?

- Look, so as to be born again in this world and enjoy the material things, first of all an spirit must return to the light, after that he will be able to decide if it is necessary to come back, or maybe you decide to stay there if you like that place more.

- But, Is there any beer or appetizer?

- Damn! Look, I can't lie but if God is like I feel it, there will be what makes you feel happy there or he will give you the possibility to come back to earth.

- Hey that would be very well.

- Look, I can't confirm anything. But if you don't go, you will not be able to know. All in all, here you are somehow disturbing those who become addicted to this and your attitude damages you more.

- Hmm...? For a while, he was thoughtful and said.

- And what do I do with all this luggage I have?,

When I moved his arm, I saw rooms full of beer barrels and sacks and sacks of appetizer, nuts and others.

- My God! Leave all this here, I will make someone take that away. Do you know that to go to the light you can't take anything?

- Yes, I know that, I was told once.

- Is there anything that afflicts you?

- Well,...

- Wait, Don't answer to me!, I'm going to do something.

- I know you can see me and what you saw. Here there is an angel who is looking at me and telling me not to tell you.

- Wow! ¿Can you see them now?

- Yes, he appeared when you told me to imagine I was God.

- Can you see? This is your guard angel. You know that he is here to accompany you to the light, you know it.

- Yes, He has told me that. You can see him, can't you?

- I can only see him if he desires.

At that moment, he was just beside me on the mirror reflection and he greeted me with a gesture. So, I told him: - What have you decided? As you see, they are waiting for you.

- Look, I'm going to go to the light.

- I'm glad. I told him:

- Thanks for making up your mind. Blessed we are. Michael and Rafael will accompany you because they are my guardians.

- Gosh!. There was already light there, at that moment everything went light and he could feel their presences.

- Thank you to everyone for having chosen me. Go with God to the light. Blessed we are!

As soon as they passed the threshold of that big brightness, I began feeling very hot and woke up, « ¡Oh My God! I can't express with words what I felt, everybody was sleeping, but I couldn't get to sleep again, I was euphoric, full of energy, my happiness came from my spirit, I had helped a brother to take a step more»

 YOU DID THIS TO ME AND ONLY YOU COULD HELP ME

In this occasion, this spirit case is very special and emotional. I know that you have a lot of respect and fear to Spirits, but we must know how they are. If you wish you can go off this story, but I encourage you to continue reading , I know you can.

I was already asleep and I was lying down, on my side in the bed, I began listening to sounds, groan or moan types, a mass was dragging and there was a dog beside it.

When this mass approached me, I saw that it was the figure of a man without legs and he was dragging his destroyed lower part. His jaw was missing, he threw his lower part to me and climbed up to bed. He took me with his arms and he was moaning even stronger, I looked at his eyes and said:

- In the name of God, calm down!

He stopped and calmed down, he was looking at me and at his dog. I felt all that pain, I asked him, how is it that you are like that? He moaned again and I told him.

- Wait! I can't understand you. I felt his own paralysis in my body, his pain was a part of me, I put my hand on his forehead and I said:

- Tell me, what has happened to you? How can I help you?

- He continued moaning and he was looking at his dog again.

- Well, Calm, Calm down -.I touched the dog and it lighted up, then it began to speak:

- Thanks! We didn't know what to do.

- While I was listening, I visualized a scene:

«We were in the First World War, there were many trenches, I was a doctor soldier and looked after the wounded soldiers on the battlefield, in the crossfire.

There was a boy and his dog who had fallen down wounded and, although they belonged to the opposed side, I went there to help them. But when I could stabilize him, a grenade fell beside us. I could see how our bodies remained”»

The scene was dissipating and the dog continued:

- Then you wished to save his life. HE, thinking you were guilty, remained in this nightmare for all this time, looking for you. We are here so that you comply with your mission towards your spirit. Help us! I am his guardian and I accompany him since then.

- Oh My God!. I thought.

For a moment, the pain intensified, I could notice as if my legs were missing, I felt I had to put my hand in the middle of his chest and I said:

- In the name of God Almighty I bless you and I free you from your load, I wish all your being regenerates and your wounds are healed in the name of God!!

To our surprise, his jaw was regenerating and all his body began to regenerate, it lighted up completely, I could perfectly distinguish himself, a 28 years old boy, he sat beside me on the bed and he stood up smiling, he was jumping for joy, « Oh my God!»

— Now, calm down.

He turned to his dog and this one said:

- We must go. Say Goodbye.

The boy looked at me and spoke:

- Thanks, you did this to me and only you could help me. The dog said:

- HE didn't throw the grenade, but he has been given the opportunity to help you, as he wanted in the battlefield, but he didn't finish that work there because that grenade impeded it.

- And have I been angry with him for all this time?

- Yes, you have.

- Oh Thanks! Forgive me.

- I forgive you. I answered

- Go to the light, they are waiting for you.

Both of them walked to the light. The dog literally became an angel which gave him its hand and they both went through the entrance hall.

I woke up, my body was still asleep, I began being very hot, I was practically sweating buckets. I went to dry myself and I dedicated them a prayer.

 USE REIKI IN THE SPIRIT WORLD

I had fallen asleep, and after a short while, I noticed the presence of an spirit that was approaching me. I expected to see what he wanted to do, but when he was near, he got away again, in one of these times, I began to see a scene of an old man who was dying in a surgery while being operated.

This man got closer to me and I began feeling all his anxiety for the operation, somehow, at that moment he didn't want to die in the surgery, he didn't accept his death and had been stranded in that pain scene.

He repeated the scene of the pain again and again and he died in the operation. I touched him and asked him.

- How can I help you?

- Nobody can help me.

- Well, be patient with me. Maybe, if I am here with you at this time is to help you.

- Look what happened to me. Can you see it? I wanted to enjoy and see my grandson but this had to happen.

- You will see! I want to ask you something, do you know that you no longer have your body?

- Yes, I do.

- And then, how is it possible that it still hurts a body that you haven't?

At that moment, I could feel all the intensity of the operation, somehow we were together on the stretcher: I put my hands on the area, and I remembered that in Reiki, if you can feel something, you can send your energy for what is necessary, according to the divine plan.

So, I thought about that wound and sent all the love and energy I could. Just like that, the wound closed suddenly and healed the area, I grabbed his hand, and incorporated him sitting on the stretcher.

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

- You see, The wound has cured. Stand up! You will see!

- There is someone very special who is coming to meet you.

At that moment, what happened was that a light door opened opposite us, a child crossed the door, ran towards me and gave me a hug. I didn't expect this. The child said:

- Thanks, Thanks, Thanks!,

- I remained immobile, my emotion increased in such a way that I didn't know what to do, the child took his grandfather's hand and said:

- ¡We didn't know what to do to remove him from here! We needed you to intercede.

The grandfather was euphoric, he was watching his grandson, they crossed the door. Little by little the scene got dissipated, but the powerful wave of that love hug produced an unbelievable heat, I incorporated and I was literally burning, feeling euphoric, my energy was radiant, I couldn't fall asleep and I was standing for some hours, walking without a way, orbiting along the aisle so as to calm that feeling of euphoria. I could still feel them, what that grandfather and son could feel for that meeting.

I know it is difficult to believe, the spirit world is part of my world, it is real.

MY DAWN. IT WILL LAST A WHOLE LIFE OR LIVES.

Since I was 38 years old, I have been accepting the existence of the spiritual world or spirit sphere which coexists in the Material Life Sphere. The fact of integrating this activity in my daily life has been complicated.

This activity sometimes was presented during work moments , and even in the middle of conversations when my mind was based on doubts and fears. I experimented the lowest areas of the spirit astral where our spirit brothers are. They are infringing an auto-punishment and suffering their own torments and hells. In most of the cases, they were sure that they were not worthy of the light and the divinity which reside in their spirit.

I can see that light which is neither seen nor felt.

And I stopped asking why, so « why is he like that with me?» so that he eliminates all the doubts and all the fear patterns that the human spirit has auto-infringed about thought, word and work during so much time. As we already mentioned, we are angels in a life experience.

Everything seemed to crumble around me, but that was only an illusion so as to strengthen myself and to be able to express what I feel.

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

And like me, there are millions of sensitive human beings, sensitive ones with the spirit energy, you are the conscious human angels, but many of them are still in their process of awakening. I wish that this book brings you all the love and light that you need.

I got rid of the wish of being understood or just being able to explain, I only write about my experience, like an observer or a scientist who writes down and catalogue the information so that one day it becomes into a useful tool for many people and serves as a good use to humanity.

Along the life way you will find very useful and subtle tools so as to help you define who you are in reality.

Following I will talk about Numerology which is one of those tools and about the Pinnacle calculation which is created in Base 11.

NUMEROLOGY

From Mathematics mixed with Metaphysics Science and Canalization, some orientation tools can be born and they can be very useful. From everything we must be able to extract the wheat.

Learning to separate the straw from the wheat seems to be easy, But,...?

In every philosophy, science, belief, in every discipline, it is necessary to discern and separate the “straw”, what doesn't bring us anything, from the “wheat”, what is an ambrosia for our intelligence and our spirit.

Following the sequence of Fibonacci, the quantum physicists have documented that the universe and the performance of the matter follow some geometry patterns so as to generate everything.

We could express that this geometry of substance and life is sacred “Sacred Geometry” and follows mathematical patterns.

Based on the mathematics, we will come to the numerology, by applying to it what was once called occult science because of the fear that something which was unexplained caused on the public in general.

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

Today it is explained as Metaphysics which is the science that studies what isn't physical or the spirit. « Wow!, You see, There is a science for everything », we continue classifying the creation.

Based on calculations and numbers we can determine sequences of our life. Where did these tables and calculations come from? Someone before us did his best to combine Science and Spirit and produce useful tools or of mere curiosity. The human being nature is to know and to create.

A friend and teacher shared some tools. Here I put, under my personal touch, a fragment of one of them.

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

“Someone before us combined Science and Spirit”

* PINNACLE CALCULATION

FOUR CYCLES OF OUR LIFE

Our life is divided into four pinnacles.

Each pinnacle exerts its influence in our life.

Do you remember when I expressed that the creator puts some stages that you have to go through whether you like them or not? Well, these stages could be the pinnacles. And when these stages come, great events happen in our life.

When we know our pinnacle, we can get ready to extract the best in that period of time for our material and spiritual growth.

As I told you before, the matter and the spirit go together, “Dr. No” and your interior angel go together in our soul vehicle, “soul”. It depends on us to accept and listen to one or to the other, to create a balance by enjoying and learning from both, and so generating the harmony in our being. The union of the opposites, the balance, the yin and yang.

Without a doubt, the pinnacle influence must be taken into account so as to understand our behavior, as if it were a biorhythm. The study of your pinnacles will help you to understand your changes of character, your attitudes and ups and downs.

HOW ARE THE FOUR PINNACLES THAT WILL APPEAR THROUGHOUT OUR LIFE CALCULATED?

* First we have to take our date of birth and reduce it to a single digit. Example: 2nd June 1972. (02 / 06 / 1972)

$$2 + 6 + 1 + 9 + 7 + 2 = 27 = 2 + 7 = 9 = \text{Number 9.}$$

* Then we have to do a subtraction

We must always take number 36 as a base.

We must subtract to the number 36 the digit of our date of birth (in this case number 9)

$$\textit{Example: } 36 - 9 = 27.$$

It means, in this example that the first pinnacle lasts from the birth till 27 years old.

* The pinnacles (second and third) have a length of nine years each one, so according to the mentioned example, we deduce the following:

- > First pinnacle: from birth till 27 years old.
- > Second pinnacle: from 28 till 37 years old.
- > Third pinnacle: from 38 till 47 years old.
- > Fourth pinnacle: from 48 till the end of the life.

So as to calculate the value of each pinnacle, we must proceed the following way:

Date of birth from the example: 2nd June, 1972.

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

Number of the first pinnacle: It must sum the day and the month from the date of birth.

(Day: 2nd / June) $2 + 6 = 8$

*Then the first pinnacle is from birth and it lasts till 27 years old and its number is 8.

According to the Table “Meaning table of the pinnacle number”, number 8: will be a good financial period of time.

A lot of effort and ambition will be required on your part. You mustn't trust in your “luck.”

Number of the second pinnacle: It must sum the day and the year of birth.

(Day: 2nd / Year: 1972) $2 + 1 + 9 + 7 + 2 = 21 = 2 + 1 = 3$

*Then the second pinnacle is from 28 till 37 years old and its number is 3.

According to the Table, number 3: “you will have to take care to develop your creative capacity. You will be inspired and you will have good ideas. You have the chance of writing or dissenting.

Number of the third pinnacle: It must sum the two previous pinnacles.

$8 + 3 = 11$

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

Then the third pinnacle is from 38 till 47 years old and its number is 11.

According to the Table, number 11 “is a spiritual expansion period. It can even have a certain religious tendency.”

Number of the fourth pinnacle: It must sum the month and the year of birth.

(Month: June / Year: 1972)

$$6 + 1 + 9 + 7 + 2 = 25 = 2 + 5 = 7.$$

Then the third pinnacle is from 48 till the end of life and its number is 7.

According to the Table, number 7: “You will be interested in educational and scientific purposes. You must try to specialize.”

Now, following this example you will be able to calculate your pinnacles. Next I explain the meaning of each number to you so that you understand what your pinnacle offers you in that period of your life.

On the table you can see the number of each pinnacle and read the canalized illustrative message, if they have any coincidence or resonance with your current life, you choose to accept this information as a possibility or talk with your “Dr. No” and reject it.

Meaning table of the pinnacle number.

N.1: While this pinnacle lasts, you will have the opportunity to be a leader. You must trust yourself so as to triumph.

N.2: While this pinnacle lasts, you have to have diplomacy. It is a time to be patient. You may set up a society.

N.3: While this pinnacle lasts, you will have to take care to develop your creative capacity. You will be inspired and you will have good ideas. You have the chance of writing or dissenting.

N.4: While this pinnacle lasts, you must work hard. It is a period of time to save and accumulate for future needs.

N.5: While this pinnacle lasts, you must get rid of the old and accept the changes. It is a moment of advance and progress. It is a period of time in which you must be active.

N.6: While this pinnacle lasts, you will have homework and responsibilities. And what's more if you are single, you can get married during this period of time.

N.7: While this pinnacle lasts, you will be interested in educational and scientific purposes. You must try to specialize.

N.8: While this pinnacle lasts, it will be a good financial period. A lot of effort and ambition will be required on your part. You mustn't trust in your luck.

N.9: While this pinnacle lasts, you will have to have a lot of sympathy, tolerance and live for the others. It isn't an easy period of time because very few learn to give without expecting any reward or payment.

N.11: While this pinnacle lasts, it is an spiritual expansion period. It can even have a certain religious tendency.

Each of the expressions of this table is like a clue of what the spirit hopes from each pinnacle, according to the date of birth of each individual, it can be a chance that it coincides with your life experience or a "causality" in a technical way, if we considered this advice as if it were an oracle, maybe we would improve our experience or our experience wouldn't have been as it was.

But as I previously said, you are even wrong when you are right.

When we are wrong, we only generate new ways in which the creator regenerates the experience and leads us through this new way in the experience of this life.

OTHER PEARLS OF WISDOM

Following I will put some separate writings, messages, answers to questions, and clarifications that somebody has asked me at some point and which detonated in me the need of writing the answer, as they came to me, I write them.

* TWIN SOUL SEARCH

Any idea about the spirit or twin soul which fosters a separation of the totality is wrong, as an spiritual being you must know the truth, it depends on you, as divine ego, to accept and integrate this information.

User: Loren

Access to: Akashic (spirit memory) registers of the spirit knowledge of the totality.

Question: Twin soul concept?

Answer: All the souls are twins and identical.

Breakdown.

Twin soul: All the soles without an exception are twins. The sole vehicles where the essence or divine bright of the spirit of the totality stay, are identical.

It depends on the vibration or experience that you wish to live in the material world. It will project, in the physical world, a being with an aspect or another, male or female, independently of its sex.

This divine vehicle or soul is born in a tree which is in a unique creator, this one provides with twin and identical vehicles. The constant search of the twin soul is absurd because all of them are twins and identical. When the ego, a fundamental part of the material projection, doesn't accept its responsibility in its own creation, it experiments a sensation of division and this sensation of division or loneliness causes an incessant search which fosters even more the separation of the being. The creator when observing this behaviour provides the necessary so that this spirit in this soul vehicle experiments what he is clung to. How to solve this conflict? Remind our ego from our divine bright that falling in love with the soul vehicle is like falling in love with a car that one day you will have to leave, then?. The brotherhood is felt in every level, all the soul vehicles are twins to yours and all the divine bright are your brothers in the totality. Remember the truth!. The physical projection of the vibration that your divine being decides how to experience by interacting with your brothers causes the thought energy, emotions and feelings that you decide. It is what you feel in your experiential ego.

Note:

In the material world it is normal to associate the material mate that you choose with your sole twin, if this one doesn't accomplish with your sentimental, physical and material expectation or prejudices, your ego chooses another mate and creates that link again.

Remember everything is a twin soul of yours!

I can't break the truth.

It depends on the limits that you had forged as facts in your ego so as to accept this or not.

A hug. Ammi Shaddai. "The Messenger".

Thanks, thanks, thanks.

In the life experience, it is necessary the company for the way or not. Those who decide to be parents in this experience search for a partner to share this experience and responsibility to bring birth to this material sphere.

Those who look incessantly for a partner so as to feel complete are in an incessant search of a spirit similar to their way of feeling or being.

Any time that they have always spoken about sole twins, they referred to similar spirits, those ones that wish to have a life experience and share a part of this way which is life, if they find a similar spirit, they will be very happy and they will feel fulfilled in everything they undertake.

* CONNECTIONS AND ENERGY

User: Loren

Access to: Akashic (spirit memory) register of the spirit experiences.

Question: Connections and spirit energy?

The divine spirit is always connected to the totality source, the same way that his soul vehicle and his Ego physical projection are, in no time it is disconnected.

The ego can produce, with his large range of feelings, thoughts, words, actions and emotions, the sensation of disconnection. In fact, this is an important factor for many life experiences.

The Energy doesn't decrease, doesn't modify, doesn't increase and doesn't reduce in the divine spirit. But it can increase in the material projection so that another ego receives energetic support, as well as assistance in his shape projected in the matter, "and even some reforms for possible damages in the soul vehicle, chakras, auras, etc., (the soul vehicle comes fitted with all kind of complements)" which are always caused by the belief limitations or accepted philosophies as the truth of the ego projection.

Note for the Divine Ego:

In the material world you will find disciplines of thought, philosophy, energetic ones and others so as to amplify the connection with your light soul vehicle which is also called Mercaba and at the same time to access to the truth of the divine spirit which joins us in the totality.

There is no limitation of time connection. You can keep this state forever. Keep in mind that this will provide you with the possibility of being in every sphere and kingdom at the same time. This can alter the ego.

The only limitation is the one that your ego accepts as the truth.

The ego will have the need to disconnect from something which is perfect, but he can also decide to keep the connection, this will cause that his divine part manifests itself in the earth.

“Consult: Let’s take the sky to the earth, angelic legends. When the angels walk on the earth...”

Nota: “We cancel every apocalypse.”

Thanks, thanks, thanks.

* SENSITIVITY, THE WEEPING

A statement as an answer to a simple question that one day I asked myself while my tears were falling when reading a book and remembered all those that preceded us.

Why do we cry?

And, every time that you hit me, or you hit one of my brothers, I will get up with more strength, because we are God strength.

“The man of God” only understands about unconditional love and divine mercy.

And, for each of his tears, one of his brothers will be born, because we are life.

And, for each of his tears, one of his brothers will be freed from his load.

And he will come back home, because we are divine ascension.

And, for each of his tears, an angel will walk on the earth embodied in a human being, because we are the dawn of the angels on the earth.

The word and his presence make it possible. Thank you for it is like that.

Awake our heart, my flame is in us, because the time for the angels to walk on the earth is now.

We are not coming to judge, we have come to remind you what unconditional love is.

We have come to accept you the way we are, we are bringing the light to the world, and, we will walk in every human being, because all of us without an exception are God's sons and daughters.

This is the message that Gabriel brings to the earth once more, here and now.

Don't cry anymore, because I am in your heart and beside you since the beginning and until what you consider the end, and in the eternity I accompany you.

I saw you being born, I felt your being, I laughed and cried beside you, I saw you leaving this world many times, remember how the unconditional love is and the unconditional forgiveness is, as a guardian, I am only waiting for the moment of conceding your ascension.

Blessed We Are.

Save God loved angel, because I know you have heard me.

LETTER FROM A DAUGHTER TO HER MOTHER

You asked me: How will my daughter be?

Hello mummy!

I'm writing to ask you, have you been living this adventure, which is called life, longer than me? Tell me, are you happy?

Mummy, you tell me to be like you want: To be a missy, not to play in the mud, not to jump the puddles, not to paint on the walls with chalk or mud,...

You tell me about everything you don't want me to do and everything you want me to do, you want me to be like you. But tell me mummy, are you happy?

I would like that you played with me jumping in the puddle, that we together enjoyed painting with chalk and playing with the mud, because I'm happy this way mummy! You always tell me how you wish I were, and I see you, you want me to be like you. But tell me mummy, are you happy?

I will make you happy and I will be happy if you are by my side when I get wrong, if you let me be the way I am and you smile by my side with my blunders, together we will reach the happiness.

Help me to help you, smile when you think I'm making a fool of myself, I don't mind what the other people think because mummy "I am happy". Enjoy with me mummy, don't get angry with me for what you wanted to be and you were not able to.

When you read this letter don't cry, smile because I haven't been born, yet. Smile because we together will reach the happiness and you know, we will jump the puddles, play with the mud, and paint with chalk and then you will bathe me and we will smile, and if I fall down, you will cure me and you will always take care of myself.

You know, I haven't arrived yet and I feel like playing, life is said to be an adventure, we will live it together. I love you.

A hug mummy.

 BELIEVE OR NOT BELIEVE? CREATE OR NOT CREATE?

Throughout history, the human being has had to improve himself and believe to create.

I would like to give a simple example:

Before the human being knew what a plane to fly was, he had to imagine that it was possible, with faith. The only fact of talking about it was the reason of mockery. But at some point in history, someone separated himself from the other beliefs, and by breaking the rules of what is possible or not, he designed his imagination display without more words or requests, he started working on it, and his desire to believe that it was possible opened the way for the expression of his creation. It is clear that, as in every invention, when it is built, it is very easy, but so as to create it you need, faith, initiative, hope, confidence in the purpose that is pursued, and without these values, the human being will always be doing the same and we wouldn't develop or believe anything, so even the inventor has faith in his invention and he enjoys every failure as another proof and one more step to reach his purpose success. And the human being managed to fly.

Believe is create. And so as to create, it is necessary to believe with faith.

If before starting, you ask for everybody's opinion and don't value your own judgement, if everybody is against your dream, if you value more the opinion of the others, You will not create it! You need confidence and faith in yourself.

* SPIRITUAL BEING

When a person decides to put into practice a spiritual education about himself, he will find an incomprehensible opposition in the environment, family, friends, strangers...

Suddenly, it seems that your election affects the environment and that's it! This happens to test if you really want to practice a discipline on yourself. The most important thing about this is if what you feel is your happiness.

If you practice a discipline and you talk about it, but you don't give example, the environment will react in a hostile way without acceptance. Your reaction is very important.

In the practice, when I have seen myself in this situation, I simply smiled and affirmed, « For me it is important my faith! I accept that you don't show or haven't any faith, but, is it so much to you to accept that I do have faith? ». Don't answer anything else. You will observe how they agitate themselves when trying to catalogue the faith.

They will not only show their most unknown facet, but their intolerance as well.

Remember! Apply the spiritual discipline, it is important that we accept the environment and that we are simply happy with our election.

The environment learns with the example. Undo the idea or initial intention that they understand, it is enough if they only accept it.

“The unconditional love includes, does not exclude. It multiplies, does not divide. It approaches, does not move away. It embraces, does not reject. We are unit in the totality.”

The quantum physicists defend the position that there is an energetic grille that joins all the space that we observe empty, this grille joins us.

The ones who practice Reiki, feel how the energy of that totality flows from our vast universe into each being, this energy uses that grille so as to reach each one of us. The more particles of this totality vibrate in unconditional love, the easier will be that the other particles feel it and vibrate, by imitation at the beginning and by happiness when time passes.

Each particle of the totality is a living being whether we can see it or not.

Love your neighbour as yourself, and if your neighbour gets very stubborn, increase the dose of unconditional love, accept him like he is and continue with your discipline and your example.

WHY DON'T YOU LET YOUR HEART TALK?

You have doubts and fears, you think that everything can hurt you. When you open your heart and it is hurt, you automatically close it again.

This happens because it was always closed. If its natural state was to be open to receive and give love without waiting for anything instead, «Oh dear how hard it is this for the pride and the ego!», it would get stronger and it would only recognize love, because one only sees what he is disposed to give. Remember darling that you don't have to be afraid of anything, a master affirmed, "I am with Him and in Him and I have nothing to fear." When you feel hurt again, express the following aloud so that you can hear yourself saying it: « "I am one with God, I am one in God." »

And remember "that there isn't an affront for a light being. You are all light beings. Time doesn't exist for a light being because you are eternal."

FORGIVE YOURSELF

Forgiveness is one of the most difficult disciplines, especially the capacity of forgiving everything unconditionally. But, would you be able to forgive yourself and stop judging you?. Only your thought and mind can mistreat you at a level that you wouldn't tolerate anybody. However you do it to yourself.

Forgive yourself, let you simply be Happy, leave your prejudices behind, try to keep a reputation, remember that the reputation is what the others see in you. The important thing is what you feel and you can change everything you feel into unconditional love.

The unconditional forgiveness is divine mercy. Jesus and Kwan Yin are two impressive masters in this discipline. When you forgive, you forget and you free yourself from the prejudice load.

It is your election which conditions your experience, the others have to choose by themselves. When you practice this discipline, you free your spirit from the unnecessary load, imagine the load that you can free if you can accept yourself and forgive you just by allowing you to be. Now we are in practice.

WHAT IS AN ARCHANGEL?

As I already mentioned, it is one of the purity aspects of the being. Father's and Mother's son and the perfect angel's brother, guard of his brothers, he is one of the spirits who can change his vibration so as to fulfil some missions among the different material and spiritual kingdoms and spheres.

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

After his material experience, two equal spirits decide to join together and form the unit. From this union an archangel is born. The archangel is the union of two light beings in harmony and unconditional love.

Archangel Gabriel is the perfect balance union of Gabriel and Hope. The being purity.

ARCHANGEL GABRIEL, GABRIEL AND HOPE

Why is it so important to forgive?

Unconditional love: “If you forgive, you forget. So as to love, you have to forgive everything. The unconditional forgiveness is divine mercy. If you forgive yourself, you will love yourself unconditionally and you will be able to forgive the others unconditionally.”

I observe a pattern that is repeated, when you are aware of your Spiritual self, the main problem which destabilizes the balance is that it disagrees with your material self. One of them affixes you to this world, the other one pulls you. One of them handles your mind, the other one your heart.

Let's see, at that moment, it is time to do the inventory and to sit down the three ones.

Do you remember Uriel's Inventory?

It turns out that you had some material plans before your new self-spiritual arrived. It is time to recapitulate, to create a balance between your material world and your new spiritual world.

You have to achieve the union and the balance in your new SELF.

It is necessary that your heart and your mind join together, write what you wish now that you are aware of everything, but remember that none of your worlds must be eliminated, it is a question of coexisting in harmony and balance. This implies a process of total acceptance. When you achieve it, you can only express:

“Loved father-mother creator, I put my mind, my heart and all my BEING to your disposal, for my spiritual evolution to benefit my divine spirit and of the whole humanity”

From that moment on, trust, have faith, and you will be provided with the value, the strength and the necessary serenity so as to enlighten all your world and all your BEING. Bless and thank for each day.

And remember that in his heart everybody is one. We are like “I Am”. Thanks for letting the light flow from your interior.

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

Now, I will share a writing I received together with a photograph from Facebook. I express my gratitude for receiving it. And I share it with everybody.

The previous day I had been on the beach, at Saint Joan's night, There, I expressed in writing a petition to the great karmic council and to the highest spheres of the being, I accepted this writing as an answer and I gave it the following title.

Decree from ARCHANGEL GABRIEL, for the divine service in the earth.

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

*“We are the strength of our love and unconditional mercy.
The Messenger”*

DECREE FROM ARCHANGEL GABRIEL, FOR THE DIVINE SERVICE IN THE EARTH.

I open up to receive the universe goodness.

I open up to the good, the beauty, the abundance, the health, the joy.

I open up to the full freedom.

I open up to the happiness of living.

I open up to receive without any conditions or objections.

I open up to express the light in the earth planet.

I offer myself as a light channel so as to anchor it with more intensity each time.

I am totally free of fears and doubts.

I open up to be a light instrument in the planet.

I fully trust in the divine guide and I allow myself to be used as a light instrument.

I ask to be a witness and a part of the full demonstration of the light and the love one in this earth.

I celebrate and express my gratitude for living embodied in the planet today.

I know that the negativity is appearance, a consequence of the duality conscience.

I am ready to embody the unit here and now.

I ask to be guided in my actions for the good of everyone and what everything is.

I am a cell in the humanity body, and I am in service to the totality.

With eternal love Gabriel.

If you are still fighting with your “Dr. No”, with this decree, you have to know that we walk together in this vehicle, and we share the experience of this ego divine projection.

If he hurts you, he hurts himself, if you hurt him, you hurt yourself. Solution: If you love him, he loves you. «We will have to get along with it and accept it like it is» and we will share our experience knowing that in this material world, we are duality and we walk together learning to love unconditionally.

We are in the practice of our auto skill of the being. Welcome to the earth God angel.

HOW CAN I HELP IN THE DIVINE PLAN? WHICH IS THE MISSION OF AN ANGEL OR AN ARCHANGEL IN THE EARTH?

In the beginning the Elohim created the kingdoms and the material spheres which were divine and perfect to house life.

We are in a sphere where many Elohim took place and among them Astrea. One of the most well-known is Elohim Jehovah mentioned in the Bible, but I will talk about Elohim Serafin and archangel Astrea from the white ray. For this, I implement this writing which I found during my great search in Internet.

Elohim Astrea: Union of the archangels Purity and Astrea, Elohim from the fourth ray, the white ray of the hope, the perfection, the peak and the purity.

It is the mother flame and the ascension flame, the wish to meet God through the body purity, mind and soul, through the consciousness of the divine mother who covers all the natural laws which govern every earthly demonstration.

Remember the female energy from which all the things are formed, the mater, the mother, the matter. If you love everything of the material world, the spirit world and all the worlds and spheres with all their beings the way they are, unconditionally as if you were their father-mother, at that moment you will have the purity that God wishes and your spirit will be able to ascend and transcend the material worlds. And while there is something left to love or to accept in the material worlds, you will remain embodied in them. The purity that Christ reached when affirming, “Forgive them, forgive my brothers because they don't know what they do”, this is the purity of the being, the capacity to forgive and love everything without an exception or condition. When expressing this, each atom of your being will become a radiant Sun in your spirit. From the purity of the white ray emanate the seven rays, the seven aspects of christic (1) consciousness, the seven archangels.

(1)Christic: Christ's energy.

Remember that there are more than seven.

Blue is considered female of white, archangels Michael and Faith. Astrea holds blue and constant white on the material worlds so as to transmute everything which doesn't flow according to the divine plan.

If you find yourselves in front of a person who is a medium or has energy from the medium and is expressing spirits of the lowest vibration, call Astrea the same as Jesus did one day in front of the boy that it was said he was possessed or wicked, you don't have to fear anything since Michael watches over all his brothers and he always protects them and Astrea can find the light of the divine beginning in every being, no matter how dark it looks. Let's say that he takes out the angel, he was once, again and transmutes his entire load only with his prudence.

Observe, I eliminate the fear patterns when mentioning our brothers with such a low vibration as devils, the devils would be the ones that "Dr. No" denominated: the negative part of the being and the spirit. Here, I will remind you that they will behave the way they are called. When you treat a human being as a useless one, at the end he will believe it, when you treat a spirit as a devil, at the end he will believe it.

The boy who Jesus attended was a medium and expressed the will of a spirit that we would denominate a dark one, a spirit that has forgotten his own divine light and that he auto judges himself and takes advantage of those that move in his same vibration.

Jesus attended him, helped him to his reorientation by means of Serafin Elohim Astrea, this spirit brother that one day, he turned off his own light because he got carried away by his “Dr. No” and believed that he was a dark being.

Wherever any discord is produced, visualize a great blue circle and call in the name of Christ the presence of Serafin Elohim Astrea. Astrea transmutes everything that is contrary to God or to Christ, what is opposed to the divine plan.

Remember that the ones mentioned as fallen were and are the angels who forgot their own divine light to the divine service so that in the life experiences and being duality, the human being would know the difference between the suffering “Evil” and the unconditional love “Good”. As I have already mentioned, these spirits must be attended with the necessary divine assistance so that they recover the light vibration of the God Angels.

For this work, following the divine plan, the sensitive ones of divine presence being conscious and embodied on the earth, with the assistance of their guides, Saint Angels, Archangels... will be used.

It is time to come back home and that the angels walk on the earth. “And that time is now”. As I have already expressed, a simple hug from one of our embodied brothers has the same effect than this narration, the same as Jesus did one day by only touching that boy.

If you realize, I try to eliminate the fear patterns which are transmitted by the lack of understanding and sympathy in the divine plan. Nobody will remain in his hell more than what is necessary, the darkness even serves the divine plan and will come back without any doubt to be the divine light again.

9TH OCTOBER, 2011. AFTER READING THE BOOK, THE MASTERS OF THE 7 RAYS. THEIR LIVES, THEIR WORKS AND THEIR EDUCATIONS Dedicated to Elizabeth and Mark. Thanks.

When reading this book, the following happened to me: There were sentences or texts that stood out, as if the letters of intensive gilding palpitated, so I wrote them down and related them by master, first in their lives and then in their educations, by combining them I got the following writing.

Not my will but yours must be done.

I am the open purity that nobody can shut.

And in my flesh I have to see God.

I am the way, the truth and the life.

I am alpha and omega in the nucleus of white fire of the BEING.

I love you. God is good. It is as it is. So be it. The practice makes the master. Perfect love throws out the fears.

I am what I am. I am as I am.

Come soon my dearest mother to free our souls forever from the sense slavery, from the illusion of time and space and from the violators of your word which is embodied in our soles "Christ".

Come blessed mother, come. And she is everything and the sacred fire of the creation is her servant as much as her God. Remember, in fact, the process of the ascension is one of complete pardon.

Here I am, I am down here as you are up there.

I and my guru Christ are one. Me and my chela (Interior guide) Christ are one.

I am, my "I am" is Christ alive.

I serve. The servant isn't bigger than his God. In your hands I hand over my spirit, Oh God.

I am the guard of my brothers.

I am that God, I am that life. I am the one I am.

I hope you pass all the tests.

I am life and live to free the humanity.

I am the bearer of the sacred fire of the ancient of days.

I am in the earth the cosmic fire distributor.

Thanks loved Morya, Lanto, Serapis Bey, Paul the Venetian, Hilarion, Lady Nothing, Saint Germain. Thanks father and mother, thanks Christ that you are in my inside, Thanks holy spirit that you are in my heart.

I am the strength of our love and unconditional mercy.

I am the eternal student.

I am the messenger.

Loved Gabriel. Blessed we are, blessed we are, blessed we are.

KARMA AND DHARMA. REINCARNATION, CLEANING AND TRANSMUTATION

I have been observing that they focus their attention on checking their Karma more than producing Dharma, after all it is the only thing that eliminates Karma.

I observe that in the couples, the woman who complains about the man, before this life, she was a man and she did exactly what her couple is doing to her now. I observe that the man is doing the same that when he was a woman his couple did to him, as they are not aware of this, they continue repeating the pattern and it is impossible to stop the generation of Karma that they are working on. « How difficult it is that the wheel spins around in the direction of the Dharma! ».

What is the Dharma? Give without waiting for anything instead. Give more.

What is the Karma? The consequence of your acts in this life or other lives.

¿What is the function of the Reincarnation?

Turn conscious your spirit and begin to generate Dharma so as to leave this reincarnation wheel and move on to the next “state”, more subtle, less materialistic.

The cleaning is necessary, I understand, but tell me, if with your internal cleaning, you hurt everything around you, what are you generating?

In some occasion, I have expressed that it is the time to forgive and transmute everything, because while the cleaning raises an astonishing cloud of dust which touches the ones around you, the transmutation disbands totally that energy and it is converted into Dharma.

TRANSMUTATION: Changing negative energy into positive energy by means of thought, word, actions or other means like energetic, physical ones or not.

CLEANING: Release to the four winds everything that annoys you literally: « You remain in the glory! Ok, but! Who is going to tidy it up later? What does this generate? It is a mystery or is it Karma? Who Knows? ».

Change the cleaning to Dharma or transmute directly or you can also do what you feel. You choose, this after all, is only an observation.

A hug, Thanks for reading me, Thanks, thanks, thanks.

THE WORRY

I say to many workers of the light that you are already operational.

We are observing that the worry interferes in the divine plan which is destined to every human being.

When something is too much for you and you worry too much, you will observe that if you take part in it and that wasn't the moment or it isn't your work, the problem increases, problem which is observed from the material world.

You have to know that in those cases you needn't have worried at all. You only have to delegate to the angels who guard that human being, although what you see you think can be negative from your point of observation, it is necessary that it happens.

With this, I only want to tell you that you mustn't let yourselves be carried away by the worry of your part result, just simply do what you express with your heart and let the divine plan occur. If you interfere by putting your will, you will learn a valuable lesson.

And remember: "Although you can get to think that you were wrong, everything was planned, everything happened the way it had to happen". Thanks, Save Loved.

The following prayers were useful to me.

THE PRAYER AT THE END OF THE DAY, TO SLEEP, TO REST THE MIND

In the name of Almighty God, loved father and mother eternal creator, absolute Trinity of unconditional love and mercy, you are in our hearts. I give my pardon to everyone who needs it, I forgive myself and I ask you for loved pardon. I'm sorry, forgive me, because I wasn't able to understand you, you know I love you.

As fathers and mothers, as brothers and sisters, as sons and daughters, as teachers, and without any doubt, I love you and I will love you as Holy Spirit. Blessed you are, blessed you are, blessed you are from our heart, because I know that you have heard me, thanks, thanks, thanks. Amen.

THANKFULNESS DECREE FOR SERENITY, VALUE AND WISDOM

Father and mother blessed light of my life, thank you for giving me serenity to accept what I cannot change with humility. Father and mother blessed light of my life, thank you for giving me courage to change what I can change with your unconditional love and mercy. Father and mother blessed light of my life, thank you for giving me wisdom to distinguish the difference among pride, selfishness and our unconditional love and mercy.

Thanks, thanks, thanks.

ANGELIC LEGEND II

When the God strength descended to the earth sphere with free will and duality, he would confront to the opposed vibration of his being, and so it was.

Michael's mission was to hold his sister Beautiful Light, because although her light was beautiful, her education in the duality based on the suffering caused a great chaos in the material world.

Rafael's mission was to find Beautiful Light's representative in the material world. These angels used their education by destroying the emotional and material world, and as it was expected, they didn't remember their real essence, neither the ones, nor the others.

Gabriel, the Messenger, without his purity of the being seemed to be another thing than an angel. His mission was to destroy his dark brothers, but in a dual purity world, everything looked like darkness.

Having known this peculiarity, the totality ordered Uriel the task to remember Gabriel who he was in reality, but that wouldn't be easy because Uriel would also forget who he was.

And when Gabriel woke up, they would need Chamuel, with mother's love and unconditional love towards every being, and Gabriel and his brothers could come back home. But, what would happen with those who still believe that they live in the matter darkness?

Gabriel, before coming back home, decided to show the light that every being houses in his inside.

Remembering what happened with so many and so many Master angels who went down to remind how to love unconditionally, he chose and remind an angel who was eventually called Jesus.

“If you are not capable enough to love yourself, you will hardly be able to feel loved by the others”, these words from Uriel, made Gabriel stop in his incessant search of darkness. And he decided to begin to see the light which was in the darkest part of each being. The only thing he had to do was to intensify that divine bright and that would be like having more than 8 thousand million Christs on the earth.

So Gabriel walked where Michael was holding his sister, he looked at her eyes and he simply hugged her whispering in her ear.

“In spite of everything we are brothers, do you remember?”

Gabriel transferred mentally to his sister part of his purity and let her see all the damage that she had done to the humanity.

At that moment, a loud noise sounded in the totality of the kingdoms and spheres. Not even Michael could foresee this event. They had been fighting too long with the darkness.

Beauty Light hit Gabriel dreadfully and he remained free. But something had changed, half of the load of Beauty Light remained in Gabriel and half of Gabriel's purity remained in his sister.

This generated such a confusion in the being that Michael arrested Gabriel.

Gabriel could only say « I got tired of fighting from the outside, now I am going to fight from my inside. I know that there is still light in her inside. If I'm not able to achieve it, Michael and Rafael take charge of my being. »

The egos and divine aspects on the earth were very strong, but Gabriel remembered that he had to trust fully in the being purity. Transmuting half of the load of the most terrible being that the earth met wasn't easy, because it would last every day until the back home in its own being.

“Evil doesn't exist, evil is done.”

Gabriel remembered all the fallen ones that he had taken down in his mission and that these ones could be embodied again so as to remember how to love unconditionally, but he also felt as a fallen one. Which being would be able to take down his own brothers?

But what these warrior archangels didn't know is that their father and mother totality observe how their sons fought without a direction in a dual world, when in the full light of the being they lived together with harmony.

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

So, they apparently decided to see with good eyes what the five archangels had started, now more than ever, Michael, Rafael, Uriel and Chamuel had to put their Light on Gabriel and his sister, wherever they were, one felt the other, because half of each one was melted in that action.

What would happen?

WHAT DID THE TOTALITY SEE IN THIS ACTION?

The Divine mercy is the capacity of forgiving everything. Along the earth ages, very few ones have achieved this divine feeling in the earth, but could the angel in a human being maybe feel divine mercy? Would Gabriel be able to forgive himself for massacring his fallen brothers? Because they are also angels.

HOW COULD WE GET TO THIS? HOW LONG HAVE WE BEEN THIS WAY?

We fight without remembering what we are, since you are born in this world, you are subdued to an education based on competing, on avarice, on pride, and on selfish. We are promoted with free violence and we are flooded with negative vibration which is necessary to remain indifferent in front of any suffering being.

WHAT HAPPENED?

WHAT DID GABRIEL SEE?

In the being duality, in this mess of wills, in the free will of the Earth, very few ones remember when they were children and played around the being, the totality. In a moment, a mercy act created an unexpected result.

Gabriel remembered when they were children and while playing, they forgave anything so as to continue playing.

Would the reconciliation between light and darkness be possible? Yin-yang in balance.

SKILL IN HURRICANE TIMES

Good morning loved embodied angels, we are in times of practice as you say, you know the theory, and because of it, your skill is required these days.

The previous time, after some calm and serenity moments, a minor storm was untied. Remember how you reacted then. Because that untied whirlwind that you expressed, and as you say you express what you feel and feel like God, brought the hurricane which is disturbing you today. Remember brother something very simple.

UNCONDITIONAL LOVE

 Unconditional Love Includes, does not exclude. Multiplies, does not divide. Moves closer, does not move away. Accepts without any conditions or buts.

Embraces, does not reject. Transmutes with unconditional love. The answer of the other mustn't change your serenity.

Here it is your skill. "By his acts you will know them"

Your skill on the matter depends on what you decide to express, and whatever you decide, accept the result with love.

Welcome to an inflection point.

According to the health, support your body in the doctors until the skill on your "Dr. No" is serenity and unconditional love in full storm. If you get the full love in all your emotions, your body will heal, but if you doubt, it will be unbalanced. In these cases, your body only tells you « I am still not ready.»

All this is very good because you can see how the system works, so as to move yourself in a material or a spiritual way, you have to be peace from your inside being and express this at the same time that you accompany with the action. If in full expression of love and serenity, you untie your fury, an only blow out comes back like a hurricane. Transmute with unconditional love.

A hug. Save loved angels.

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

“The dark mind with a light heart, the divine brightness and wisdom of the mind with a dark heart”

THE DUALITY

The dark mind with a light heart, the divine brightness and wisdom of the mind with a dark heart, this happens in the duality. So as to remember what you are, you must put into practice your skill, only this way you will ascend again.

Would you be able to embrace your enemy? Would you be able to forgive him? Would you be able to find his interior light? The angels' battles are big, angels who want to be like the totality. When they enter the material world, they forget their essence and the being purity.

THE FREE WILL

Some people say that everything is written and created, let's say that all the possible options are contemplated and all the results are prepared. The Creator establishes some inflection points that you choose for your life experience and your skill. In these points you must solve, being conscious or unconscious, if the individual only centers on the Karma, he can generate what he observes but if the individual centers on looking for darkness, he can generate what he is looking for. What would happen if you only paid attention to the light? There aren't any winners in the light.

When we develop the capacity to express what we feel in our hearts with love, we are generating a Co-Creation. Let's say that the Creator and you melt so as to express.

But what if the Creator were a variation of divine pride?. Could the Creator learn inside his own creation and fulfill himself at the same time if possible by becoming more sensitive, more human divine, more human angel, more merciful?

There are so many open questions in a free will state that it's better to center ourselves on living the moment and fully trust on Him. From my point of observation, what Gabriel did was simply to embrace his sister. Doesn't the warrior have any pity for his equal in a moment of the incessant battle? Doesn't your opposite have any family perhaps? But how would this affect the course of the material events?

LIFE IN THE EARTH

The Earth: Planet in which it is supposed that there is intelligent life. Which intelligent life would be able to watch a brother dying from hunger without giving him a hand?. Which intelligent life would be able to generate a change currency which costs more than life itself?

Which intelligent life would generate crisis by greed, corruption and power control so as to stop work?

Which intelligent life would create borders where there aren't any, and laws against its own intelligent life?

Which intelligent life would allow to be governed by beings that value money more than life?

If intelligent life in the Planet used its intelligence to provide with a plate of food to every living creature, there would be so much work that everyone would have something to do. What would happen If they were able to share their natural resources, without damaging the own earth by the greed of a few ones?

Everyone would have a roof to shelter. If the human being were really intelligent, he would take care of life, he wouldn't invent any systems which enslave the population for the benefit of a few corrupt and selfish ones who are greedy of power, he wouldn't invent weapons to defend themselves or in other words, so as to kill themselves, the excuse of the defense is as old as the hills. If everyone had a roof and a plate of food on the table, it would be easier to share, because the primary need of the human being would be covered.

What is intelligent life? How would a system of intelligent life be?

Life would take care of life in the service to life. Intelligent life would move sharing as a unit in harmony, it wouldn't need any system of protection or about life protection, because this one wouldn't be imprudent, it would really be intelligent.

Just Imagine, the Intelligent Humanity in the Planet looks like a nursery school.

- "This is mine because I saw it first". "I am more intelligent than you and you haven't got anything".

- “Mine is better than yours and I will defend it with my life”. ”I will destroy the life if it is necessary so that I’m not short of what it’s mine”

Are you sure that this is intelligent life? You know the theory, but my children, in the practice you leave much to be desired.

Do you know why intelligent life manages to go out of its solar system and folds the space so as to know other intelligent worlds? Because it learns how to love and share in unit.

Do you know why they don't visit the earth and if they let themselves to be seen, they do it briefly? Because in the nursery school in the earth they don't have the understanding, intelligence and love needed so that this meeting is possible.

But one day, the humanity will wake up and it will be conscious or will it finish with the life in the earth, by extinguishing civilization after civilization as it has been doing it so far?

Do you know why there aren't any superior civilizations of greedy and proud life? Because they destroy their own world before having the technology and spirit needed to explore and despoil other worlds.

That only happens in the earth, the nursery school of intelligent life.

27 Root Races put here their best seed, you know how this goes.

We keep on observing to see when the intelligent life flourishes.

I sometimes think I see a sprout, but you don't take too long to spoil it.

The earth is in an inflection point, you lack the technology and the spirit which is needed to change the Creator will, unless this one sees intelligent life and this totality of the Creator keeps on observing the last feats from the 27 intelligent root races which cooperated in the evolution of the earth.

- Don't believe this guy. I am "Dr. No". Do you remember me? I've already told you that...Of course! Of course! We listen to you. But don't you realize foolish that we are all in the same boat? When are you going to react and stop denying your own light, your own humanity?

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

“27 Root Races put here their best seed”

WHAT IS HUMANITY?

Is it human letting die a human being because he can't pay the services that can help him to heal?

Is it human to create an economy that lets the speculation for the wealth of very few, while many others suffer from poverty?

Is it human to divide the planet with borders and defend them forgetting that the earth that you step on doesn't belong to you, that it's only a loan from God to the humanity?

Is it human to create political parties, that with the intention of being rivals, forget their own humanity and create laws that damage the people they represent?

It is human to believe that they have the material resources which are necessary to defeat the Creator will.

WHICH IS THE LIFE OBJECTIVE?

There are human beings who have the necessary resources to finish with hunger in the world. However, they keep on accumulating wealth while their brothers die of hunger.

There are human religions with wealth enough to provide with a house to every living creature on earth.

And they behave like if they were going to be short of their wealth and infringe the basis of their own religion and keep on accumulating wealth.

The spirits of every being who lived on earth, our ancestors observe us with sympathy, the 27 root races who provided the earth with life are observing you. The Creator of the totality of material and spiritual expressions from all the Kingdoms and spheres observe us.

Do you think you can create anything without the authorization or the approval of the Creator?

We are still waiting for you to solve the conflict that you have been feeding since the beginning of the ages. How long do you think is left?

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

“Angels and Archangels in the earth in human bodies”

DID THE PHARAOHS RECOVER THEIR WEALTH FROM THE PYRAMIDS BY CHANCE?

Their own subjects looted the pharaoh wealth who believed that accumulating wealth in a material world for their following life would be their salvation.

I'm going to tell you a Karmic joke.

Do you know why there are beings that die of hunger on earth? In their previous life they were corrupt politicians. An irony of the universe, their meal plate depends on the same corrupt politicians that one day their children will be.

WHEN THE ANGELS WALK ON THE EARTH...

Gabriel wants to announce that: "From the year 2000 they are incarnating crystal energies, glittering ones, angels and archangels in the earth in human bodies, in no more than 80 years with your intelligent life rhythm, the divine intelligence of the earth being will be replaced in its totality by angels, angels who are able to assume that are passing through and feeling conscious of what their work is."

Let's talk about angels. In the beginning.

But don't be afraid, everything that vibrates in a different frequency, will continue its normal life and will disembody when the moment comes, this spirit will embody by occupying another earth, and you will be provided with new time so as to achieve it once more, so you will remain embodied in an eternal cycle of suffering, until one day you are the intelligent life and the angel that, without any doubt, you are.

“Gabriel's trumpet has already sounded, now you will know the heaven on Earth.”

THANKFULNESS FROM THE TRANSLATOR

I have to thank the author for allowing me to do this job which has been very interesting. I want to thank Lorenzo for his confidence in me. I could feel his happiness and emotion when he told me that he had written a book about angels. He did not care to be rich selling it. His only worry was to get to people and for this reason he feels he will be fully paid. Lorenzo is a very good person and everyone will know it when reading his book.
